During the first three weeks of March, we will be providing free computer classes for library patrons! Our classes are great for beginners as well as those who just want to brush up on what they already know! We have three classes to choose from:

Eek! A Mouse! For complete beginners

The Wonders of Word Learn to use Microsoft Word for more than just writing letters!

Into the Internet Find out how to do a search, how to navigate on the Web, pick up some on-line shopping tips.

We offer a both a morning and an evening class for each of the above programs. Stop in to pick up a schedule and to sign up for any or all of these classes!

Inter-library Loan

Have you been missing Inter-loan books as much as we have?! It's been a long wait, but we just might be seeing the light at the end of the tunnel! With a little luck, we'll be back in business by the end of the month! The new program will certainly have been worth the wait ... There will be many more libraries to borrow from, and eventually patrons will be able to search the database on their own (for the time being, requests will still need to be made through the library). For a sneak peek, go to www.mel.org and look for the words MelCat (you will need to scroll down a little). Click on this logo and then you are ready to type in your search terms. Remember, the program is not up and running yet; it will be posted at the library as soon as it is.

This One's for the Girls

Girls ... Meet Lynda Molter!

Lynda is an accomplished artist from Three Rivers who lets her creativity take shape in many ways. We are really excited to have her here to demonstrate a bead-making technique called "lampwork". This is a type of glass-blowing that uses a torch to melt rods and tubes of clear and colored glass to make beautiful beads. You will have the opportunity to try your hand at this craft as well as make your own bracelet. Mark your calendar ... you won't want to miss the awesome program!

Lynda will be here on Tuesday, March 25th from 3:30-5:00. Please sign up if you would like to attend!
