

Eighty Five

WAHBEMEME

1985, a year that will stick in our minds forever. We cried at the death of baby Fae. We cheered with the success of the human heart transplants. We learned of the reality of starvation and teen suicide. We found out that "We are the World."

We jammed to Madonna and learned that we "can't drive 55."

We wore neon clothes that told us what Frankie thought we should do, and cut our hair in flat tops and ducktails.

1985, a year full of tears, laughter and joy. We hope this yearbook brings back some of those memories again and again.

In Dedication To....

Doris Slack

Doris Slack was born in Kalamazoo and was graduated from Kalamazoo Central High School. She attended college at Western Michigan University and did graduate work at Michigan State University. She came to White Pigeon in 1961. Besides teaching Home Economics, Mrs. Slack has been the Future Homemakers of America advisor. We would like to thank her for her 24 years of service and dedication.

Carol Martin was born in Sturgis and was graduated from Hillsdale High School. She attended Hillsdale College and Western Michigan University. Before coming to White Pigeon, Mrs. Martin taught in Dunedin, Florida, Coldwater and Reading, Michigan. Mrs. Martin began teaching at White Pigeon in 1965. She has taught seventh grade history and English. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were charter members of the Sturgis Civic Players for 12 years. In appreciation, we would like to say thank you for your dedication to White Pigeon students.

Freshman Cheerleaders

The 1984-85 Freshman cheerleaders had many accomplishments this year. They went to camp at Western Michigan University over the summer and earned four third place finishes. Last fall, they attended a clinic/competition at WMU and brought home a second place. They topped off their year by winning first place at the annual SJV League Competition. Congratulations girls, on a job well done!

The White Pigeon Marching Chiefs completed a very successful season this fall. The Chiefs are directed by Sue Norton and drum major Scot Ridoutt as well as drum minor Eric Mody.

The band traveled to Rockford, Michigan to compete in the 1984 Wolverine Band Competition. The Marching Chiefs received a first-place trophy for marching and maneuvering in Class C and a third-place trophy for the best overall performance.

Later in the fall, the band traveled to Sturgis High School to compete in the MSBOA District Marching Festival. The band returned home triumphantly with a 1 rating for the sixth straight year.

Class Wills

I, MARGE ATHERTON, being of dizzy mind and crazy body, will to Paula Berchiatti that she make her and her baby Lauren the best of happiness the rest of their lives, to Angie Lucas half of my you-know-what, to the underclassmen, the best time at WPHS and to all seniors, the best future they'll ever have.

I, TIM BAECHLER, being of "Wanderish" mind and "Wanderish" body, leave my "Wanderish" spirit with "Hobart," to Brently Kulpus, the ability to be a stud without having to use somebody else's name, like mine, to Coaches Schneider and West, the best of luck with future football teams, to all my friends, the best of luck in the future.

I, CHRISTINA BENNETT, being of overloaded mind and tall body, will to Phil Tracy the ability to organize his music in band during concert season, to my dad, Mr. Miller, I will a new child who can starve in my place, I also will to Tricia and Jim to have fun the rest of their WPHS days. Class of '87, Good Luck.

I, GARY BENNETT, of insane mind and personal disorders of willing and able body, do hereby leave all my money, chicks, this school, my coat and all my leathers and chains to Dave Gowen.

I, LISA BENNETT, being of not enough mind and spirited body, do hereby will the following things: to Tammy O'Rourke, the ability to stay with one guy for more than two weeks, to Dawn Blaisdell, my French ability, although this year it ain't that great, to Marcy O'Rourke, the ability to have fun in high school. It'll go fast!

I, LAURA BLACK, also known as bell, will to Paula and Angie a rowdie senior year, to Mickey my parking spot marked Bell and a free ride in the school bus, to Brad and Stacy, many rowdie times, and lots of wonderful memories, also to Stacie the ability to skip and figure a way not to get caught.

I, KERRI CHUPP, being of obliterated mind and tired body will to Brenda Bontrager my smelly kneepads, to "Mac" my turtleneck sweater, to Tammy and Shel my athletic abilities, to Matt Ruple my N.D. ticket stubs, and to Joey the ability to "play in the rain and not get wet." Finally to all my "little friends" left at WPHS, a GREAT time.

I, MICHELLE FLAGER, being of incomplete mind and taken body, will to my cuz Lori a great time cheering! Also to Nikki (Nu) I'll never forget ya, to Rachel, a great friendship, to Doug the very best of times and to WPHS, may Jesus shine in your lives!

I, SCOTT GOUT, being of somewhat sound mind and body, will the following: to Mr. Stambaugh, what remains of my sanity after Philosophy class to Mr. Brokaw, a new book on ichthyology trivia, to Mr. Miller, all the "mickeys" and "critters" I have collected over the years. (Put that in your pipe and smoke it)

I, SCOTT HAGEN, being of twisted mind and bowlegged body, will to Lori Rentfrow the will to remember all the good times we had in high school, and the best of luck to my baby brother Terry my car, and to anybody that goes to Coldwater my bus seat.

I, SANDY HOLDEMAN, being of perverted mind and sensuous body, hereby will by sacred basketball number 24 to Nicole Hart with the provision that she brings much honor to it, to Dawn DuFour, I will the ability not to have scary nightmares, to Jenni Stout, I will a guardian angel and to Lisa, a lifetime of good luck.

I, MELANIE IRELAN, being of somewhat mind and present body, will to Marty L. the best of luck in everything you do in life, to my little brothers Paul and Kerry, the ability to stay out of trouble like I have and enjoy it though, to Scott L. have a great life and make the best of it. I'll always be around.

I, BRENDA JONES, being of love-filled mind and married body will to my best friend Debbie Patterson the desire to finish school, to Danny and Lisa Jones, the best of luck in their future years at WPHS, to the class of 1986, the ability to have a rowdy senior year.

I, WANDA JONES, being of mind and body, will to Danny and Lisa the ability to make the grades without studying, to Mr. Peterson, the ability to find two more superb hallwalkers, and to all the underclassmen, good luck!

I, TONI KATT, being of somewhat mind and cheerleader's sexy body, will to Rachel the ability to make up her mind without me, to next year's varsity cheerleaders, the best of luck, to Mr. Miller, a new daughter to starve and to everyone at WPHS the ability to have as much fun as I did.

I, JENNI (Sniff) KEAGLE, being of mentally deranged, wasted and fried mind and somewhat similar body will to the following: Cris B. and John D. my box and my mirror, to Angie L. and Paula B. my straws and to anyone who can handle it, my bad attitude toward this school and my ability to party. Cris and John, This Bud's for you.

I, BRUCE KREBS, upon leaving this institute, leave Stacie to have as much fun as I did at WPHS, also to Kevin Hobbs, my best ability to romance women with the French language, to Brenda Wagner, my ability to speak the English language fluently.

I, SCOTT LAFERTY, being of mixed-up mind and fantastic body, hereby will the following: to any underclassmen to RAID band camp like we have, to decorate the courtyard without being caught, to Marty, all the fun I have had and to be able to sneak into the house at 4 a.m. Party hardy underclassmen!

I, CINDY LENT, being of cheerleading mind and body, will to my sister, Jenny, my pompons, to my brother, Steve, the ability to paint the cannon without being caught, also best of luck in all his sports, also to Amy Suszko the ability to make it through here classes without me. Rachel, best of luck in cheerleading. Good Luck to all underclassmen.

I, KELLY (Trouble) McFALL, being of partially sound mind and short bod, leave to Monica Kirk the ability to get wasted on the weekend and make it to school on Monday, to those who take Branch next year, my seat on the bus (right behind all the good-lookin' guys) and to Brian Valiente the ability to always kid around.

I CATHIE MAGILL, being of drained mind and tall body, will the following: to Heather M. my locker, to Michelle M. my blow dryer, to Huck, a new pencil, to Rachel D. my height, to Taya B. the ability to stick up for her rights in cheerleading, to John and Nathan continued success in making WPHS a little more exciting and to all my friends, Good Luck!

I, NATALIE MATHEW, of no mind and sound body, will to Chris Brandys the ability to skip school and not get caught, John Delarye my Van Halen mirror and the ability to borrow a pair of sunglasses and not get in trouble, to Mrs. Loyer my unexcused absences, and to Paula Berchiatti and Angie Lucas, my straws.

I, SCOTT MORRIS, being of dregressed mind, will to every student everything that is not mine, to Pete Jarrad (super teacher) I will Scot Ridoutt's enthusiasm, to Mr. Bargwell, I will Mr. Jarrad's enthusiasm, to Mr. Bale, I will Earl Campbell's speech teacher, to all the people that I didn't will, I wish you well.

I, MARK MORROW, being of sound mind and "long" body, will to Jennifer Juday the ability to have her own locker, to John Kasdorf the ability to get his driver's license before he's 30, to Greg Swank, the ability to become popular without playing sports, to everyone else, Have a great year!

I DIANE NOTTOLI, being of overworked mind and underdeveloped body, will the following: to the squirrely sophomores, my sanity, to "ugly" some of my beauty, to Nate and John, a new puppet and especially to Jo-Jo, a super senior year!! Also, to the teachers at WPHS, an end to a long line of Nottolis.

I ANN O'ROURKE, being of drained mind and body will to the McLaughlin clan the ability to walk to Mills by yourself, my pompons and cheering talent to any girl who thinks she can handle it, to my sister, Tambo, the ability to make short, long-distance phone calls and to Marcy, the ability to put up with the name "Baby" for the rest of her life.

I, GREG O'SULLIVAN, being of superior mind and don't mention body, will to my brother my keys to the red thing, I also will him the ability to stay out of trouble, be a brown-nose, ace tests, and get good grade points. I also will him the ability to be not so weird.

I, LORINA PATTERSON, will to my sister Debbie and Deanna the power not to let any of those preps push you around, and to Vickie and Shelly to stay the way they are 'cause that's why people like you.

I, DOUG PERRY, being of forgetful mind and drained body, will to my cousin Doug Rossman a super time in high school and the ability to get good grades, to Michelle, a future full of happiness and good times, to everyone else, a super time at WPHS.

I, CHRIS PHELPS, being of overworked mind and taken body, do hereby will to Mr. Jarrad my slightly used brain, to Mr. Schneider the task of finding someone else who can kick a football, and finally to Candi, I will myself, if you think you can handle me.

I, MURIEL REXFORD, will to my brother Jamie, the ability to have as much fun during his high school years as I did, to Mr. Peterson, two more hall walkers as great as Wanda and I, to Mrs. Slack, a big hug and a thank you. We Love You.

I, SCOT RIDOUTT, being of sound mind and great body, will to Eric Moody my position as drum major, Beth Takace, my first chair position and finally to Phil Tracey and Eric Moody I leave my light-saber.

I, PETE RIPPLINGER, upon escaping from this palace of Hugmejackets leave the following: my Batman toothbrush, kazoo and all my army men to anyone who needs them, to the next Chief, I leave my feathers and my enthusiasm, to all underclassmen, one squashed animal to love, to my teachers and friends, I leave a laugh and a touch of weirdness.

I, LEO STUDABAKER, being of sound mind and body, leave my locker to whomever the school wishes to give it, I leave all my books to Raymond Bennett, I leave all the trash left in my locker to Kris Nesvig, to Paula Berchiatti and Angie Lucas, I leave all my partying implements & my beer tapper.

I, BRAD WAGNER, being of sound mind and brutal body, will to Brent Haifley my somewhat used football jersey, to Clint Stambaugh and Rob Jonker my pole vault pole and extraordinary form, to Waldo the ability to do anything in band and not get caught, to all underclassmen the best times at WPHS.

I, MIKE WOOD, being of crooked legs and pointed nose, do hereby leave to Rhonda (Spook) my weight bench so she can be tough, to Rob S. I leave my break dancing abilities, to Dan C. I leave my ability to pick up women and a thought to all: stay away from booze and drugs! Don't be STUPID!

I, LISA "Buzzer" WORTINGER being of dizzy mind and wild body, will to Dawn DuFour to have as much fun her senior year as I did, to Shawn Jacobs, the ability to party and do your homework as good as I did, and finally to the underclassmen I wish you many good times here at WPHS.

I, KIMM YODER, being of demented mind and extraordinary body, will to Rhonda W. my worn-out softball cleats and the parking spot I never had, to Cathy Y. a great senior year, to John K. my car (if he wants it), to Nathan M. continued success as S.C. president, To Stacie S. and Brenda W. my awesome hitting ability, to Sarah M. someone else to abuse.
