VOLUME 43
THE YEAR IN BLACK AND WHITE

It was black, white and a little RED here at W.P.H.S. As students made it through another year of school. The seventh graders finally adjusted to life in the fast lane and are looking forward to welcoming next year's seventh graders. The eighth graders look forward to becoming a part of the high school, while they may not want to give up their authority in the middle school wing. The freshmen have ordered their class rings for the fall and can't wait to start "Drivers-Ed". The sophomores enjoyed the trip to Chicago and are looking forward to what the next year will bring. The juniors had a great prom and are excited about becoming seniors. The ACT and SAT tests are over as the juniors look beyond high school. The seniors have chosen their respective paths toward a life outside of high school.

The school year began (to sum it up in black and white) with a Bang! The year however, passed before our eyes, Homecoming was over before we knew it, followed by the big Tomahawk game, next year the Falcons won't be so lucky. After football season it was winter sports and the semi-formal. Soon after the winter sports the dreaded "spring fever" or "senior-itis" kicked in. It wasn't too long after this when teachers cracked down to try and cram our brains with just a little more knowledge. Finally graduation rolled around and that was it. Black and white were the colors of the grad gowns, and they graduated with a little RED.
MOVIE MAGIC — GAMES — AND A LITTLE BIT OF SPIRIT.

QUEEN: Stacy Miller shows her excitement about being crowned Queen at the Homecoming game. "It's great to know that my classmates would select me to be Queen," said Stacy. Homecoming King was Shannon Troyer.

HOW LOW CAN YOU GO? Junior Dominic Porpiglia shows his spirit in the annual limbo contest, but he couldn't go as low as first place winner Sophomore, Deanie Jones.

MOVIE MAGIC WAS THE THEME, AND ALADDIN WAS THE KING: The Class of 96 got their wish. The winning float was presented by Sophomores Amanda Anglemyer, Amy Procaccino, Denny Perry, Jenny Lilley, and Shantell Johnson.

KING: Shannon Troyer's future plans are to attend college and major in Computer Aided Design. He participated in Football, Track, SADD and French Club. QUEEN: Stacy Miller's future plans are to attend WMU. She participated in Cross Country, Volleyball, Track, SADD, Student Council, and Varsity Club.

SENIOR CLASS REPS: Ryan McKale plans to attend Glenn Oaks. He participated in Football, Basketball, and Baseball. Amber Lutz's future plans are to attend Glenn Oaks and later transfer to WMU and pursue a career in business. She participated in French and Varsity Club, SADD, and Yearbook.
Bob Babcock's future plans are to compete in college Cross Country and Track, and major in Criminal Justice. He participated in Cross-Country, Track, and Varsity Club. Shannon Miller's future plans are to attend WMU and major in Speech Pathology. She participated in Cross-Country, Volleyball, Track, SADD, French Club, NHS, Senior Class President, and Varsity Club President.

GRIN AND BEAR IT: Senior Scott Verow was pulling for the win at the annual tug of war contest during the homecoming assembly. The Senior class prevailed and won the tug of war contest.

25 MILLIONS OF MILLIONS: The Varsity Cross-Country team ran the football from Edwardsburg to the pep-assembly for the Homecoming football game to display their long-distance spirit.

SENIOR CLASS REPS: Adam Takace's future plans are to study to be an Environmental Engineer. He participates in Football and Track. Angie Hart's future plans are to pursue a career in Special Education at Grand Valley State University. She participates in SADD, Band Council, and French Club. Not pictured are Jason Fletcher and AmyDickenson.
RED ALERT: JUNIORS BEAT SENIORS IN 1993 POWDER PUFF GAME

TOUCHDOWN: Junior Jaime Plank celebrates after scoring the only touchdown of the game. She scored after catching a beautiful pass thrown by Michele Boyer. Jeannette Lucy scored the two point conversion. The Juniors went on to beat the Seniors 8-0.

WE WIN: The Junior team celebrates after beating the Seniors 8-0. The Seniors thought there wouldn't be any competition, but they were wrong. The whole junior team played very hard. This is the first time in many years that the Juniors have out powered the Seniors.
READY, SET, HIKE: Starters for the Seniors, Kim Floor, Amber Lutz, Sarah Kanouse, and Mindy Miller, show that they are a bunch of tough girls during the powder puff game. The Seniors showed their spirit throughout the game, but came up short, losing to the Juniors for the first time.

RAH RAH: Senior powder puff cheerleaders Bob Babcock, Shannon Troyer, Jeremy Burton, Chad Betcke, Adam Takace, Scott Verow, and Bobby Walker formed a pyramid to show off their support for the senior girls during the powder puff game.

1, 2, 3, 4: Under the direction of Junior Todd Rentfrow, drum major, and Mr. Edward Graham, director, the White Pigeon Marching Chiefs marched down South Kalamazoo Street in the first ever Homecoming parade. The parade was held on October 1, 1993. It started at 6:30 P.M. at the high school and ended at the football field.

BLAZING THE TRAIL: The White Pigeon Police Department led the way for the high school marching band. The band marched from the high school, down main street, then on to the football field.

WE'RE #1: Senior powder puffers Brenda Eells, Mindy Dressler, Carrie Wine, and Sarah Kanouse started the powder puff game. The game was held on September 27, 1993 at the football field. The players hit the field at 7:00 P.M.
OVER THE TOP: Gary Shoppell and Mark Durocher, officiate the '94 girls arm wrestling finals between Senior Janelle Whiteman and Sophomore Lindsey Sanders.

JUST SAY NO: Larry Johnson and friends join together to help fight the war on drugs.

TEEN SPIRIT: White Pigeon High School students show their school spirit by all joining together for the long awaited winterfest assembly.

AND THE ANSWER IS: Senior Bob Babcock and Junior Lisa Yeomans wait patiently to answer Mark Durocher's question about "None of Your Business" during the winterfest assembly.
TWO OF A KIND: Identical twins freshmen Susan and Shelly West pose for a picture before they perform "Shoop" with the dance squad. It looks like these two have the same taste in fashion. Let's just hope they don't ever have the same taste in boyfriends, or there could be some major "double trouble"!

TRIPLE TAKE: Believe it or not, there really, really, really are triplets at White Pigeon High School. Seniors Stacy, Mindy, and Shannon Miller show their spirit by wearing their medal-filled varsity jackets. Who said that bad things come in threes??? He must've been tripping.
MORE THAN JUST ONE

DOUBLE IMPACT: The freshmen Loden twins act like they really like one another by putting their arms around each other. Are these guys future twin towers, or just double dips? Just kidding, Jim and John! (Or is it John and Tim?)

DOUBLE COMPANY: Eighth grade twins Amber and Jason Turpin are having "two much fun" being this close to each other. Rumor has it that this pair can never get along. Just try to be friends one day, you two! We double dare you!

TWICE AS NICE: Or maybe twice as evil! Do sophomores Ann and Beth Kelly feel one another's pain as they strangle each other? These fraternal twins may share the same birthday, but not always the same interests. They're easy to tell apart, and they are "towly glad"!

NO CONNECTION: says freshman Becky, and her brother, Charlie Shafer. But they can't fool us! We know that they're twins, and they love it. Now, you two go and get back to your studies — on the double!
FRIENDS ARE FOREVER

FRIENDS FOREVER: Friends since the seventh grade; Juniors Sara Finch, Jaime Plank, Bridget Hackman, and Lisa Yeomans take time out between classes to stop for a snappy picture. Their smiles show that they will be friends forever.

LOOK AT THAT FACE: Senior Sally Morris's mouth drops open wide in response to a remark that Senior Angela Hart said. Sally and Angela are such good friends, that in the fall they will be attending Grand Valley State University together and will also be roomies in an off campus apartment.

WHAT A CUTE COUPLE: Juniors Jamie Rextord and Debra Evans have been dating since the beginning of the school year. During lunch they are found hanging out in the library or they can be seen in the halls together. They are a match made in heaven.

STUDYING HARD: Freshman Stephanie Yoder keeps her boyfriend Junior, Jason Pletcher company as he studies for one of his classes. Stephanie and Jason have been dating since Christmas and you can find them eating lunch together and studying in the hall near one of their lockers.
THUMBS UP: Senior Jason Fletcher shows what a good friend he is by carrying Senior Jeremy Hersha into a class meeting on his shoulders. They give a “Thumbs up” to their friendship.

PRACTICALLY SISTERS: Seniors Amy Earl and Brenda Eells have known each other since the first grade and they have stuck together through thick and thin. Friends aren’t only people to hang out with, but they also are people who appreciate one another.

CONSTANTINE PALS: Seniors Jenni Tripp and Betsy Nottoli, friends from Constantine, enjoy attending White Pigeon during third, fourth, and fifth hours. By attending both schools, they meet new friends and take classes that their school may not offer.

WORKING FOR A LIVING

CAN I HELP YOU? Junior Brooke Shupp puts on her employee smile for a customer at Hardee's in Middlebury.

WHERE'S THE BEEF? Senior Dusty Plank is ready to go home after a long day in the meat department at Troyer's Super Value.

DO YOU HAVE TO? Sophomore Jeremy Stabler smiles for the camera, even though he didn't want to, while working in the meat department at Troyer's Super Value.

FRENCH-FRYING! Freshman Rusty Baker is a cook at Kelly's Root beer Junction during his freetime, he is careful to never burn the food.

STUDENT LIFE
CHA-CHING!! Senior Amber Lutz carefully counts the money she is about to put in her cash register, while working at Troyer’s Super Value as a cashier.

PAPER OR PLASTIC? Sophomore Matt Kanouse makes bagging groceries at Troyer’s Super Value look easy, even though it requires much skill.

MILK ... IT DOES A BODY GOOD!!! Sophomore Andy Loden works hard to show how truly dedicated he is to his job at Troyer’s Super Value.

We Miss Our Dear Friends
More Than Sports
RUNNERS TAKE YOUR MARK! Here is the Cross Country team holding the Homecoming ball at the start of their journey from Edwardsburg to the pep assembly.

TAKING THE LEAD: Senior Bob Babcock leads the pack to finish 1st in the SJV league Cross Country Championship at Constantine.

DETERMINATION! Junior Mark Moyer is exhausted as he finishes the last laps at Constantine.

THIS RUNNING IS EASY! Coach Gene Schroll, Amber Hulse, Shannon Miller, and Jana Behrends run their leg of the race just outside Union on their way to the Homecoming assembly during Spirit Week.

ALMOST THERE! Sophomore Don Wagner and Senior Dusty Plank carry the football down US-12 from Edwardsburg on their way to the Homecoming assembly.
FIGHTING THE PAIN! Senior Co-captain Stacy Miller fights the pain of her hamstring injury that lasted most of her season. Stacy still came up with a great performance at Constantine finishing 2nd.

ROAD TO VICTORY

This year's Cross Country team took everything to the extreme. The first girls team ever placed second in the SJV league, along with the boys. The team also had one special runner, Bob Babcock, that went all the way to the State finals in Belding, Michigan. For the whole team, this was a season of great wins and great achievements.

Junior Mark Moyer was recognized by the SJV coaches to receive the 3rd annual Swanwick Courageous Runner Award.

"I’m extremely happy that in my last season we had a chance to have a girls team," said Senior co-captain Stacy Miller.

"I was glad to see all of the new runners come out and have the chance to run and experience success!" said Bob Babcock, co-captain and State Qualifier.

LEADING THE PACK: Sophomore Todd Wordelman leads the stretch during a meet at the Union City Invitational. His efforts placed him 2nd amongst his teammates.

FINALLY!!

The Lady Chiefs Roundballers showed a lot of dedication and growth over the course of the 1993 season. Going winless for over three seasons, they finally got their first victory against Cassopolis. They continued with some of their winning ways to finish with a 5-15 record. Though the victories were few in number, the memories were great! Reflecting on the season, Senior Janelle Whiteman said, “The best part of the Basketball season was that we all worked together more as a team this year than what we did the previous years”. Working together and playing as a team became two of Varsity Coach Mike Gropp’s priorities for the season. Looking back on the season, Coach Mike Gropp said, “This season the girls played with a lot of heart, and gave 100% all the time. They worked hard in practice and it eventually paid off on the playing court”.

GET UP! Sophomore Stephanie Rudloff jumps high to start the Constantine game. She was flanked by Junior Jeanette Lucy and Sophomore Lindsey Sanders.
WHO'S OPEN? Junior Bridget Hackman waits for one of her teammates to help her keep the ball away from the Constantine Falcons. The Lady Chiefs lost to the Falcons 46 to 22.

PARDON ME!!! Junior Sara Finch cuts past a Constantine defender while Sophomore Lindsey Sanders looks on. Even with Sara's two points the Chiefs fell short, losing to the Falcons 59 to 28.

THE STEAL! Freshman Stephanie Yoder steals the ball from Schoolcraft, with help from her teammates Sophomore Shantell Johnson and Freshman Sarah Dygulski. The Chiefs lost 32 to 46.

LOOK OUT! Senior Mindy Miller tries to keep the ball away from the Falcons.

WHERE ARE YOU? Sophomore Amy Hilgen-dorf looks for her teammates so she can pass the ball.

GO, FIGHT, WIN! Coach Mike Gropp fires up his team by giving them a pep talk during half time. The Lady Chiefs later went on to defeat Cassopolis 56 to 33. This became the first win of the season.
BUCKLE UP!!! The Chiefs show their concentration and dedication to the team. The Chiefs anxiously await the upcoming game against Climax-Scotts, the Chiefs won in a blow out, 46-15.

HELP! Coming to the aid of Junior Jason Bradford, Doc Shappell calmly inspects a minor injury which occurred after a spectacular 30 yard catch during an upsetting loss to Schoolcraft. Jason overcame his injury and, at the end of the year, received all league honors.

SENSATIONAL: Senior Shannon Troyer runs the ball while shoving an Eddie out of his pathway during the big homecoming victory.

CRUNCH: Senior Adam Takace opens his arms wide for a tremendous sack during the homecoming victory against Edwardsburg.

WORKING TOGETHER: Speedy Senior Shannon Troyer heads up the field, while Senior All-State tackle Adam Takace creates a huge hole for Shannon to run through during the Chiefs heartbreaking loss to the Schoolcraft Eagles.

ROLLING OUT: Junior quarterback Tim Brandli drops back and prepares to throw a deep bomb to Senior tight end Ryan McKale, who then went on to score. Ryan was All League honorable mention kicker.
The Chiefs were led by seven seniors, including co-captains Adam Takace and Shannon Troyer. Rebuilding the offensive and defensive lines remained the biggest task facing the Chiefs in the preseason. Offensively, the Chiefs developed into a fast striking, lightning quick, scoring team, racing to six victories. The defensive team improved weekly and became a hard hitting, aggressive, gang tackling machine. The Chiefs worked very hard as a team, had a good attitude, and played well. They played enthusiastically and gave the Chief fans many thrilling moments that will not soon be forgotten. They were truly the men of White Pigeon.

Making the school proud, these fine athletes received awards with special honors. They are as follows: All League — Eric Cullifer, Line Backer; Jason Bradford, Defensive Back, Shannon, Troyer, Running Back; and Adam Takace, Offensive Tackle. Adam also made first team All State, offensively and defensively. Ryan McKale, Kicker and Jason Mullins, Offensive Guard collected Honorable Mention.

TESTING THE GREENS

The Golf Team had an exciting year and showed a lot of spirit throughout the season. Their League Record was 2-23 and, overall, 3-26. They placed 9th in the Mattawan Invitational and 14th in the Regional Tournament. All-League Honorable Mention went to Juniors Brandon Cropsey and Todd Rentfrow. Brandon Cropsey tied for 6th at the league meet with 76 for 18 holes. The returning letter winners consist of Senior Jeremy Burton, Juniors Brandon Cropsey, Todd Rentfrow, and Jason Fletcher, and Freshmen Nick Brandli and Rick Bush.

Coach Verne Sawyer is very proud of all the members of the golf team. He has four upper classmen who are not only good golfers, but honor students as well.

Row 4 Manager Tiffany Knight, Sara Finch, Michele Boyer, Amber Hulse, Lisa Yeomans, Manager Sarah Kanouse. Row 5 Lindsey Sanders, Stephanie Rudloff.

REEEACH!! Junior Kelly Pettit stretches to the limit and successfully digs up a spike from her opponents.

GET UP!! Sophomore Shantell Johnson leaps into the air, killing a monster spike against the Falcons.

WE GOT IT!! Freshmen Cassie Weaver and Athena Bertolino try to decide who’s going to dig the ball.
CHIEFS DIG VOLLEYBALL

IN YOUR FACE!!!
Sophomore Lindsey Sanders blocks an attempted spike.

GREAT SAVE!
Senior Mindy Miller goes down low to dig up the ball that was spiked by a Constantine Falcon.

EYES ON THE BALL:
Freshman Sarah Dygulski carefully keeps her eyes on the ball as she passes to the setter.

LOOK OUT!!!
Sophomore Stephanie Rudloff makes her opponents duck when her spikes go sailing by. Stephanie led the team in kills and blocks.

STRIKE 3: Junior Pitcher Lisa Yeomans strikes out another batter against Constantine.

MAKING THE PLAY: Freshman Thena Bertolino makes a confident throw to homeplate.

YOU'RE OUTTA THERE!! Sophomore Amy Hilgendorf catches a pop fly.

Middle School Sports

CLEARING THE BAR: Alanna Mestelle soars to new heights as she clears 4ft. 11in. during a track meet against Constantine.

BUMP: 7th graders Courtney Hughes and Kendra Salisbury are ready to receive the serve.

RAH! RAH!: The middle school cheerleaders get the crowd pumped at a pep assembly.
Not Just A Club
AND THE WINNER IS ... Amanda Takace! Congratulations to Adam "Amanda Takace" for being crowned Miss Constantine 1993. These lovely ladies were Constantines finest. The contest was held on Friday, October 22nd before the Tomahawk game.

MONEY FOR THE POOR: Sophomores Amy Hilgendorf, Besty Webster, and Ann Kelly "Pitch In" and help with the Cystic Fibrosis Penny Pitch. White Pigeon and Constantine student councils raised a combined sum of $500.

AHH ... POWER IS GREAT!! Seniors Sarah Kanouse, President; and Stacy Miller, Vice-President relax after an excruciating pep assembly. As leaders, they contributed to the most school spirit ever!

WHAT'S UP DOC, CAN WE ROCK!! Mr. Gary Shoppell gives it all he's got as he lipsync's to "Romeo". This moving rendition received honorable mention.
A PERFECT PAIR: Junior Domenico Porpiglia takes a break from his job as Student Council Secretary to spend some quality time with Senior Sarah Kanouse, Student Council President.

MOMENT OF TRUTH: During the Student Council Winterfest assembly, Mr. Mike Gropp confesses to Mr. Mark Durocher his true feelings about high school classmate Janis Dowell. Mrs. Jarrad took part in getting Mark and Janis to M.C. the assembly. After making many phone calls and telling them how much W.P.H.S. loves them, they agreed to come. Upon arrival they signed autographs and did an excellent job at the assembly. Mr. Gropp gave Mark and Janis White Pigeon basketball T-shirts and sweatshirts. Student council gave them White Pigeon mugs. After the assembly they both said they had a great time and enjoyed meeting their fans.

WILL YOU BE MY FRIEND??? Junior Pat Hines, Student Council Treasurer shows his good side during a student council session. Who said that’s just a face a mother could love?
STAYING STRONG: These fine seniors hold leadership positions in their class. Putting to use the qualities important to NHS membership. Their minds will lead them to many opportunities for scholarships and a good future.

WITHOUT POKING: Senior Erin Webster pins Junior Jason Pletcher as a new member of NHS. This honor is only available for juniors and seniors who posses leadership abilities, good characters, and at least a 3.3 G.P.A.

SKILLFUL: Senior Arnie Lambdin looks over Junior Rhonda Pletcher, a new NHS member, as she signs into the NHS book. The book holds names from 20 years ago, making sure everyone will be remembered.

SHOPPING SENIOR STUDS: Scott Verow and Shannon Miller take time out from Operation Christmas to pose for a photo with a few third graders.
SHINING COLORS: As juniors, these students have really learned what it means to make a difference. Next year, we will expect these young men and women to be our leaders and role models.

PROUD: Representing the NHS club for Winterfest, Seniors Amy Dickenson and Scott Verow are just full of smiles. These active Winterfest candidates participated in many events throughout the week to earn points for the crowns.

YMCA? After induction ceremonies Seniors Scott Verow, Jeremy Burton, Shannon Miller, and Erin Webster cheese it up for the camera with their rendition of YMCA.

YEE HA: Juniors Pat Hines, Jason Bradford, and Jason Pletcher show their triumph after winning the trophy for the overall competition during 94 SADD awareness week.

FULL OF HOT AIR: Senior Ryan McKale shows his support by participating in the class balloon popping contest during the Homecoming assembly.

JUMPING FOR JOY: Junior Eric Cullifer shows his enthusiasm while hopping his way across the finish line after being disqualified at the annual awareness week assembly.
Not Just Meetings . . .

But A Whole Lot More

REVENGE: Mr. Mike Gropp is the proud winner of the 94 pie in the face contest during SADD awareness week, raising over forty dollars for SADD.

HOLD ON: Seniors Stacy Miller and Mindi Dressler show their scooter talent at the awareness pep assembly.

MERRY CHRISTMAS: Senior Amy McClure poses as a present in the Santa rap contest at the 94 awareness pep assembly.

HUFFIN & PUFFIN: Senior Angie Hart participates in the ping pong relay during awareness week. She gives it all she's got and finishes second.

JUST TAKING A BREAK: Mr. Gary Shoppell needs to relax after putting in long hours as a Varsity Club co-adviser.

PROUD DONORS: Seniors Sandra Schmidt and Sally Morris are more than willing to give up a pint of blood. The V-Club's goal was 60 pints. That's enough blood to fill a swimming pool!

FUTURE LUNCH LADIES! Senior Mindy Miller, Junior Michele Boyer, and Senior Bob Babcock work at the Varsity Club's spaghetti dinner. Next time don't forget your hairnet, Bob!
ROYAL HOPEFULS: Varsity Club candidates Lisa Yeomans and Bob Babcock represent their group in style at Winterfest. That's funny: Lisa never looks this serious! She must be a little nervous.

THE GIVING SEASON: Varsity Club Member Dustin Plank sits back and relaxes at the American Red Cross blood drive while a whole pint of blood trickles out of his manly arm.

BLEACHER CREATURES: Seniors Bob Welker and Shannon Troyer, and Sophomore Kerri Woods love each other as much as they love being members of the Varsity Club. Maybe they should earn extra varsity letters for their state champion-like smiles.

SIGNING THE DOTTED LINE: Varsity Club Vice-President Bridget Hackman helps donor Amy Earl fill out some important information before she gives blood. Hopefully Bridget warned her about the foot long needle they will jam into her arm.
OOH LA LA! The Eiffel Tower, one of the most beautiful sites in the world, captured many of the French Club student's attention as they toured France. Unfortunately, they weren't able to venture up to the top of the tower because their tight schedule wouldn't allow it.

WE'VE GOT YOUR NUMBER: Stephanie Rudloff, Lisa Yeomans, and Becky White chat with a French monsieur at a local cafe.

TRES CHIC! Seniors Arnie Lambdin and Bob Welker show off their fancy duds after being selected French Club candidates for Winterfest. They wait patiently for the announcement of the prince and princess.

STRIKING A POSE: The monument at Musee D’orsey in Paris smiles down upon Lisa Yeomans, Kara Zandt, and Becky White. The Musee D’orsey was just one of the many museums they visited on their week long vacation in France during spring break.
PAS SEULEMENT LES ELEVES DE FRANCAIS

TWO SCOOPS, PLEASE: French Club advisor Mrs. Hocevar works non-stop on supplying her beloved French students with ice cream at the social. It was held to welcome the new foreign exchange student from France, Helene LeRoy. Many members attended the big bash, and it was a delicious success.

UNE BELLE JEUNE: Jessica Coohan takes a well-deserved break from her grueling position as French Club Vice President. Throughout the year, she organized the ice cream social and other events. The expression on her face shows she’s proud of a job well done.

FRENCH FOOD FEST ‘94: Seniors Sally Morris, Amie Lambdin, and Mindy Miller enthusiastically devour their chocolate sandwiches and grenadine. After eating all of that rich French food, the girls probably wish they would have brought along some Rolaid.

FRENCH CLUB
The Beat Goes On

GROOVY GROOVY JAZZY FUNKEY: Susan West and Shanta Thibos are only two out of nine members that are participants in Dance Squad. Both of them are dancing to the song of the season by Janet Jackson.

HIP HOP HOORAY: The dance squad was started four years ago by Sara Levi. The girls are dancing to a song by Janet Jackson entitled "IF".

72 | CLUBS
WHAT? Senior Angie Hart glares at the camera after marching with the band at the White Pigeon football game.

NEVER A DULL MOMENT: Sophomore Amy Hillgendorf struts with the marching band, while showing her school spirit.

NEW ARRIVAL: Mr. Jeff Groth is his name and music is his game. This is Mr. Groth’s first full-time instrumental music teaching position. He started working at White Pigeon High School second semester.

TOOTING THEIR OWN HORN: Sophomore Dustin Stalter plays the Baritone and Freshman Tamara Hahn plays the Saxophone while performing with the pep band.

DANCE AND BAND

73
ACUTE SMILE!!! Freshman Julie Lutz smiles pretty after correctly responding to a question. She makes Mr. Brokaw very proud by making him feel like all his hard work has paid off.

WHAT? Sophomore Mary Skiles looks confused when she receives Mr. Brokaw's pop quiz.

KEEP WORKING!!! Sophomore Ann Kelly practically pulls her hair out after working on a challenging geometry problem.

DEEP THOUGHTS!!! Junior Jeremy Smedziuk and Sophomore Julie Morgan are deep in thought while taking their fourth hour math tests. Be assured that Mr. VanderSchaff had them well prepared for the test.
MATH ISN'T ONLY NUMBERS

SAY CHEESE!!! Mr. Brokaw pretends to be camera shy. On the contrary, students know that Mr. Brokaw is a real ham.
LE FRANCAIS: Madame Elizabeth Hocevar teaches her class the importance of the French language by speaking to her French 4 class. Senior Sally Morris listens intently.

A LA MODE! Senior Shannon Miller, a four year French student, eats in style at the spaghetti dinner. French students are well rounded individuals, not only from the culture but from the food.

MORE GRENA DINE? Senior Mindy Miller pours Madame Hocevar some more grenadine. Once a year, French 3 and 4 celebrate the end of the year with a French meal. Chocolate sandwiches are usually the favorite.

FRIENDLY RIVALRY: Seniors Amie Lambdin and Stacey Clark, of Constantine, work together on their French assignment. Both schools have students that attend classes at either school.
Not Only French, But Spanish

WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE: Sophomore Don Wagner celebrates his Spanish birthday with style as he destroys a pinyatta.

STYLIN' AND PROFILN': Junior Jennifer Bowman learns the Spanish names for clothing the hard way.

QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS: Junior Jennifer Bowman carefully measures the product of the chemical reaction that occurred in her lab during sixth hour chemistry class.

ARTHROPODIC SURGERY: Sophomores Snapper and Chris Mosher have a little fun with the crayfish that Mr. Reish gave them to dissect during biology class. Even though the stench of formaldehyde permeated the air, they were still men enough to dissect the arthropod with their bare hands.
STUDYING HARD: Freshman Shelly West and Sophomores Chris Gordan, Jeremy Ellis, and Troy Erb prepare for an upcoming science test during Mr. Brines 7th hour academic center.

WHAT IS THIS: Sophomore Alton Kline asks Sophomore Jeramie Spice as they look through the inner parts of the crawdad.

THIS IS SICK: Senior Sally Morris carefully picks her brain. Sally dissected the brain for a project in Mr. Reish's advanced biology class.

CHEMISTS AT WORK: Juniors Todd Rentfrow and Steve Klingler observe what happens when two reactive substances are mixed.
SLY: Junior David Schieber acts like he's reading the chapter in Mr. Patrick West's fourth hour American History class.

MAKING A CONNECTION: Mr. Mike Gropp makes an example out of Sophomore Nathan Crofoot, who doesn't know the answer in World History.

HEY YOU! Juniors Eric Hoops, Brandon Cropsey, Todd Rentfrow, Christina Jones, and Jennifer Anderson listen carefully to Mr. Patrick West's American History discussion.

LISTEN UP! When Mr. Mike Gropp speaks in his World History class, everyone listens especially when he picks up his yard stick.
History, Not Only Facts

CAN I DO IT? Junior Sharla Rogers tries to get on Mr. Patrick West's good side, as he writes her a pass to go to the library so she can work on her term paper.

HEY, WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING AT? Juniors Mark Moyer and Domenico Porpiglia get caught off guard studying hard in their American History class.

ARE YOU TALKING TO ME? Junior Jamie Rexford pays close attention to Mr. Mike Gropp in World History class. He was learning about some of the early Chinese customs.

"SLOPPY JOE . . . SLOP, SLOP, SLOPPY JOE." The Leadership Class performs its rendition of "Lunch Lady Land" for Winterfest. Freshman Roshan Patel, and Juniors Jason Bradford and Pat Hines lip-sync the leads. Underclassmen Jenny Lilley, Brandon Cropsey, Domenico Porpiglia, Sara Finch, Stephanie Rudloff, and Aaron Rauguth act as various foods.

PIZZA! PIZZA! During the Yearbook's first annual publicity campaign, Sophomore Kerri Woods smiles after the parody of a Little Caesar's commercial. So buy a Yearbook!

WHAT'S GOING ON? Sophomores Julie Morgan and Tammy Elkins discuss upcoming Leadership activities with Mrs. Karen Jarrad.

LEADERS: Junior Kelly Pettit, Domenico Porpiglia, Jason Bradford, and Pat Hines take a short break for a picture, after all the hard work that they have done in Leadership Class. Members of the class must be active in school activities, and show Leadership qualities.

FINISHED! Junior Leila Rose smiles as she finally finishes her Yearbook layout and beats her deadline.

ANNIE, ARE YOU OK? During Health Class Freshman Glenn Bell quickly uses his CPR skill to save Annie, a dummy victim of a drowning accident.

1 AND 2 AND 3: In Mrs. Susan Outman's Health Class, Freshman Sarah Dygulski works calmly to save the babies life. She did a fabulous job.

SMILE BABY: Sophomore Aimee Procaccino plays with her egg baby during her first hour parenting class. The class had to carry an egg around for two weeks as part of a project to help people realize the responsibility of having and caring for a baby.

CAREFUL PLANNING: Senior Amy Dickenson thinks of what the day holds for Amy and her little egg baby. Amy writes down everything they have to do during the day.
THE PROUD FATHERS: Sophomores Matt Kanouse, J.T. Terui, Jason Shafer, and Jeremy Ellis get together during their parenting class to brag about what great football players their babies will become.

EQUALLY MEASURED: Senior Brian Klingler measures out the juice for snacks at Charlie Brown Pre-School that is held Tuesday through Thursday, from 8:00 to 10:00, March through May.

CLIMBING HIGH: Senior Amy McClure carefully watches Christopher Bathe at the Charlie Brown Pre-School. The pre-schoolers learn how to play games, paint, sing, socialize, and lots of other fun things.

MICKEY MOUSE: Freshman Rusty Baker paints Mickey Mouse for the door decorating contest held during Winterfest. The competition was between 4th hour classes and his class placed third.

HEALTH AND HOME EC. 89
WHAT ARE YOU UP TO? Sophomore Westley Shepherd begins his 5th hour computer class by signing in.

STUDYING HARD! Sophomore Mary Skiles shows that she is working at her best to learn all about computers in 5th hour.

COMPUTER WHIZ AT WORK! Freshman Shannon Keifer learns all she can about the basic skills of operating a computer. Mrs. Gates leads the way.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER? Asks Freshmen Josh Shudell to Wendi Strawser as they work together to learn more about computers.
ALL WORK AND NO PLAY

TAPE IT DOWN: Freshmen Aaron Eckert and Nick Brandli start to tape down Nick’s paper as he prepares to begin drafting a picture.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING? Freshman David Anglemeyer asks Freshman Chad Arnett what he’s drawing in 6th hour shop class.

NICE DRAWING: Sophomore Will Jones takes a look at David Wagner’s drawing in shop class.

HI THERE: Senior Billy McClure grins for the camera. He is preparing to paint his newest creation.

SHOP/COMPUTERS
WORK IT GIRLS: Senior Janelle Whiteman and Junior Julie Elkins walk the walk, but can they talk the talk? Ask someone in Mrs. Jarrad’s sixth hour class.

CAREFUL: Freshman Russell Howe using his art skills, carefully wedges his clay during his first hour art class.

USE THAT MUSCLE: Sophomore Andy Loden works hard wedging clay so it will be easier to shape as he gets ready to make his geometric figures.

SMOOTH THAT CLAY: Freshman Tina Anderson works carefully to fix the minor details on her three section pinch pot for Mrs. Martha Starmann’s art class.
IT'S NOT ONLY FUN IT'S BASIC

EASY DOES IT: Seventh Graders Marcus Waltke and Jami Niblock concentrate hard to finish their clay sculptures in their art exploratory class.

LISTEN CLOSELY: Mrs. Martha Starmann shows a listening Heather Verow how to roll coils for a coil pot in ceramics class.

WHAT WALKING! In her sixth hour co-ed physical education class, Senior Lisa Burrell shows her energy and motivation in her ability to do the aerobic walk as Mrs. Karen Jarrad tells her how many laps she has done.

What do P.E. and art have in common? Well, you can have fun in them. You may learn something new or another way to do an activity plus you learn the basics. For example, in basic art you learn things that may help in the future. P.E. teaches you skills in sports like volleyball, basketball, softball etc. . . You can use the weight room to build your muscles and the art room to build you imagination. Overall they're "Not only fun but basic."

SERIOUS TALKING: State Superintendent, Dr. Robert Schiller talks with Dr. Dale Kimball about the changes and improvements in our school. Dr. Schiller came to White Pigeon on February 2nd and held an open forum meeting in the library on school reform.

"The future belongs to those who believe strongly in the significance of their dreams."
Dr. Dale Kimball Superintendent of White Pigeon H.S.

"Thank you for purchasing a yearbook. The book you now hold is far more than 'just another book'. It is in many ways a historical look at our lives this past school year. It can be rich in memories, either happy or sad. Even more important, it creates an opportunity to reflect upon each of our lives. Are we proud of our accomplishments? Do we leave past relationships better than when we first formed them? Furthermore, a yearbook is a departure from the past into a new era, a new hope, and a new beginning."

BUSY BUSY: Mrs. Alice Gieber takes time out of her busy schedule to have her picture taken.

SCIENCE FUN: Mrs. Toni Balyeat helps seventh grader Faye Bowman with her science.

A LITTLE HELP: Mrs. Deb Currier helps Kari Griffith and Danielle Dees with their science.
LET'S SEE: Mrs. Jan Heign finds the card for the YM magazine that Freshman Mindy Le-Masters wishes to check out.

IS THIS RIGHT: Meeting in the hall, Rachal Stevens tells Mrs. Diane Kanouse that she can help with the courtyard if she shows her what needs to be done.

WHAT WAS THAT? Jenny Lilley asks Mrs. Pat Rentfrow how many absences she has.

Toni Balyeat: Aide
Jan Heign: Librarian
Diane Kanouse: Aide
Deb Moore: Aide
Pat Rentfrow: Attendance
SECONDS ANYONE Mrs. Bale, head of the kitchen staff, is always smiling. She must love food, to be around it all these years.

NO NEED TO SHOUT!!!: There is plenty for everyone. Anna, a veteran lunch lady, always makes sure there is enough food on the A'la carte table.

THE LETTUCE IS FRESH: Everyday Joe shreds all the fresh lettuce by hand.

A SANITARY KITCHEN: Cleaning trays. Nancy gets ready for second lunch. Misty watches as she changes the trash bags.
A Little Bit Of Red
MORE THAN ROYALTY

LISTEN UP: Janis Dowell guest MC for the Winterfest assembly explains the rules for "He Said She Said" questions.

WHO'S WHO IN ROYALTY: SADD — Eric Cullifer and Erin Webster; Band — Don Wagner and Colleen Currier; Student Council — Mark Moyer and Princess Sarah Kanouse; YIG — Jaime Plank and Prince Pat Hines; NHS — Amy Dickenson and Scott Verow; French Club — Arnie Lambdin and Bob Welker; Varsity Club — Lisa Yeomans and Bob Babcock.

#1: Mrs. Jarrad's awesome yearbook class won first place in the door decorating competition.

MAYBE ... YES. SCORE: Sophomores Nathan Crofoot, Aimee Procaccino, David Hendricks and Senior Erin Webster wait to see if the goal counts during the annual broom hockey tournament.

BRIGHT SMILES: Tabitha White and Melissa Kemp put big smiles on for the Winterfest semi-formal dance, it was a real hit.
DECEPTION VOLLEYBALL: Senior Chad Betcke watches the net as Sophomores Jason Shafer and Jeremy Stabler get ready for the spike in the annual class competition during Winterfest.

PUMP UP: Senior Ryan McKale and Sophomore Troy Erb struggle for the power during the boys arm wrestling championship, U-93 D.J. Mark Durocher helps officiate. Troy Erb won the honors at the Winterfest assembly.

MACHO MAN: Senior Adam Takace pumps up for the crowd during the lip sync, his group the VILLAGE PEOPLE placed second.

CHEERLEADING: Tina Anderson, Colleen Currier, Amie Lambdin, and Sarah Pagels dance to the tune of the PURPLE PEOPLE EATER.

PARTY ALL NIGHT: Freshmen Jeff Overton, Rusty Baker and Aaron Eckert enjoy the dance, concluding the week of Winterfest.
MAYPOLE MADNESS: Juniors Michele Boyer and Kim Regan add the final touches. Watch out Michele, Kim can be vicious with a pair of scissors.

STEPPING OUT: As Junior David Scheiber works relentlessly on stapling the cardboard steps, he imagines prom night as his stairway to heaven.

PROM STEPPING OUT: As Junior Class Treasurer Bridget Hackman hangs up streamer decorations on the ceiling the night before prom. Keep your balance, Bridget, a neck brace would totally clash with your evening gown.

TINSEL TOWN: Junior Class Secretary Lisa Yeomans uses her magic as she puts the final touches on the Endless Night that will make prom one to be remembered.

WRAPPED UP IN THOUGHT: Junior Class President Eric Cullifer is simply oozing concentration as he works on prom decorations for the big night.
ALMOST MIDNIGHT: Juniors Jamie Rexford and Deb Evans are anxious to arrive at the prom in their carriage before it turns into a pumpkin.

FORMAL FRENZY: Senior Mandy Davidson bashfully hides behind her hunk of burnin' love, Junior Sam Lock. Hey big guy, watch out for the rose!

GETTIN' DOWN WITH THE CROWN: The Kingly Adam Takace dwarfs his queen, Stacy Miller. Ironically, they were each others' date. Hey, Attacker, looks like you could use your sash for a bracelet!

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE PROM: Prom Prince Eric Cullifer and Princess Sara Finch begin following the yellow brick towards an unforgettable evening.

OH NO!: Senior Carrie Wine realizes she forgot her date at the restaurant.

THE FABULOUS FOUR: These beautiful senior girls enjoy their last prom.
THE SOPHOMORE TRIP

Lions, Tigers And Bears . . . Oh My!

THE THREE MUSKETEERS: Will Jones, Dusty Stalter and Wesley Shepherd are hanging out on their way to see the animals.

IS IT FLIPPER! Amy Hilgendorf poses for a picture in front of the dolphin house on her way in to see the show.

CHEESE! Sophomores April Okoniewski and Lindsey Sanders, smile for the camera on their way to see the giraffes.

"HEY GUYS WAIT FOR ME!" Andy Loden grabs last minute souvenirs from the zoo before boarding the bus.
FEEDING TIME! Sophomores Todd Wordelman and Chrissy Markle took time out from sight seeing to have lunch at Ed Debevik's.

LET'S GET STARTED: Carrie Bresson and David Hendricks are trying to find out what they want to see first.

"TIME OUT" Shelly Blank and Kristen Price take time out from looking at the giraffes to pose for a quick picture.

JURASSIC PARK? Ann Kelly, Betsy Webster and Alisha Smith know that it's only a statue behind them as they smile for a picture.

MONKEYS? No it's just Jerod Bradford, Josh Mosher and Snapper Mosher posing in front of the monkey cage.

WHAT A SITE! Brandi Hill, Virginia Konkle, Chrystal Ziegert and Carrie Bingaman pose in front of a fountain at Brookefield Zoo.

THE LAST STAND: When it's time to receive their diplomas, seniors rise to the occasion!

MACHO MEN: Will White Pigeon High School be more peaceful without Shannon Troyer, Ryan McKale, Bob Welker, Adam Takace, and Chad Betcke? Maybe, but it won't be nearly as much fun!

GIVING A HAND: Bill McClure acknowledges the end of a speech at graduation.

THE BIG DAY: Kim Floor, Jenny Wall, Angela Phillips, Heather Witmer, Sandra Schmidt, Sally Morris, and Lisa Slusher try hard to look innocent in their stark white graduation gowns.
HEY, MOM! I MADE IT! Matthew Oxender smiles smugly in anticipation of his big graduation day. He may appear to be calm and collected, but we know he’s just itching to go wild and crazy!

FREE AT LAST! Alan Grabe takes his diploma and portfolio from Senior Class Advisor, Mrs. Hocevar.

WWF (WOMEN WITH FUTURES!): Mindi Dressler, Amy McClure, Janelle Whiteman, Mandy Davidson, Amy Earl, and Brenda Eells demonstrate their readiness to get in the ring and graduate!

SITTING PRETTY: Senior Melissa Howell is fully enjoying herself as she relaxes before the big ceremony on Graduation Day. We’d like to know which “john” she is laughing at . . . her junior boyfriend, John DeMoss, or the john her fellow classmates conveniently deposited just outside in the courtyard?
Congratulations Janelle!

Thank-You Senior Yearbook Staff

It Was A Great Year

Thanks to Ryan & Ladd for helping with layouts & captions.
We Will Remember You

Finishing another school year at W.P.H.S. always brings mixed feelings through out the student body. You may walk down the hall and hear students say how they can not wait to get out, but within a few weeks they start to miss the activities, their friends and their teachers. The seniors miss school the most. High school years aren’t only black and white. All the great memories you have give it the “little red” that will last a life time.
