WANT TO EARN MORE MONEY?
DON’T STOP LEARNING

According to the latest U.S. Dept. of Labor “Futurework” report, the best way for a secure, higher income future is with more education and skills. Be skilled and not “stuck” in the new economy, they said.

- The Futurework report added:
  In 1979, the average college grad earned 38% more than the average high school grad. Today, a college grad earns 71% more!

- Real average wages in the high-tech industries increased 19% since 1990, but wages in the non-high tech job sector as a whole grew 5%.

- The average high-tech job pays 78% more than the average non-high tech job ($53,000 vs. $30,000). Learn high tech skills in Glen Oak’s state-of-the-art computer labs.

- Real wages for men without post-high school education have declined significantly over the past 20 years. Men with only a high-school diploma have seen their wages fall 1/5th (from $679 per week to $559). Wages for men without a high school diploma have fallen by nearly 1/3 (from $555 per week to $383) since 1979.

What's the stupidest thing you ever fought over??

“One time when Danny and I were younger I stole a cookie from his dinner plate. I told him I didn't, but I did!!! We fought over it for an hour!”
—Tommy Swank—

“I'd say... uhhh the playstation and playstation games. Kory can't stand to lose. He'll try to throw punches at me when he loses!!”
—Kyle Scott—

“Umm ... We don't argue much, but I would have to say my overall supremacy!!”
—Joshua Hahn—

“Let's see ... I have NO clue you make something up! I guess we don't fight often enough to remember.”
—Joshua Royce—

What do you admire the most about your sibling??

“My brother and I get along MOST the time. I admire him in a couple ways, but I like how we don't tell our parents things that we know they'd disapprove of.”
—Amber Wright—

“What?!!! I dunno ... I guess his good looks??”
—Mike Aumack—

“This is a bad question. I have no idea I guess I admire her quietness, so that way she won't drive me crazy!!”
—Rachel Bowen—

“I admire my sister's Knowledge.”
—Alisa Juday—

"When we hang out together, all we do is play on the Internet and play games."
— Janyn Meek —

"We go shopping and go the movies ... that sort of thing."
— Jenna Lauer —

"I don’t know ... we barely hang out together because we really don’t have that much in common."
— Allena Bates —

"When we hang out all we really talk about is life and other things like that."
— Chris Laird —

"Whenever we are in the same area we fight with one another."
— Tavis Shelby —

"Not very often. We get along pretty good most of the time."
— Brooke Baechler —

"Everyday, continuously; pretty much whenever we are together."
— James Yoder —

"Once in a while; whenever he makes me mad, I guess."
— Rachel Rivers —

As the 2000-2001 year ends, we look back upon the MILLIONS of memories that were made here at White Pigeon High School. Though this is yet another closing to a chapter of our lives, we know that we'll have these memories to reflect back upon. MILLIONS of sports, organizations, academics, people, and student life, is what makes White Pigeon High School so unique, but as said by Robert Frost, - "I can pretty much sum up life in three words...."
