MATH

Math is one of the most important subjects in life, you will use your math skills everyday. Our math teachers are Mr. Vander Schaaf, Ms. Stoel, Mrs. Poley, Mr. Morsaw, Mrs. Dayharsh, and Mrs. Williams. We offer Transition Math, Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, Consumer Math, Pre-Calculus, FST, and Physics.

Working together to complete their bookwork are Seniors Chris Johnson and Cory Skeels. "Consumer Math is the easiest math class I've ever taken," said Chris.

Stay awake. Trying his best to keep his eyes open and focused as Mrs. Poley gives the lecture is 7th Grader Noah Krull.

6th Graders Jericho Smith and Zach Briones use their scientific calculators to solve the tough math problems assigned to them by Mrs. Williams.

Working hard and studying for their Algebra II test are Juniors Jenna Waltz and Brooke Faulkner. "Math is easy for me. It's one of my favorite subjects," said Jenna.

Check your answers! Looking to see if she did well on her homework is 7th Grader Paige Brock. While her neighbor Kiley Lowery listens in to Mrs. Poley.

Can you help me? Asking her table partner for help on her math homework is 6th Grader Jordan Meyer. Jordan was in Mrs. Williams class this year.

Bombs Away! Juniors Mike Nowicki and Gabe Mullins test out their sling shot in Physics. They recorded the distance and height of each shot on a chart to see who could shoot the farthest.

- 1- Say what? Dazed, confused, and focusing hard to learn a new concept in Algebra is 8th Grader Lance Lace.
- 2- Making one last check before turning in his math test is 6th Grader Jaycob Williamson.

SCIENCE

We had a lot of Science projects going on this year in the lab, and in the classrooms. Some of the projects were the egg drop, the wave, the building of the catapults and many more!

Focusing on the science slide show is Seventh Grader Delbert Weaver, "I love science, it's my favorite class!"

Happy Happy Happy! Getting excited for the lesson, Seventh Graders Cole Shafer and Hunter Jourdan.

Listening in on an important lecture by Ms. Middleton are Seventh Graders Moly Monsen and Makayla Meyer.

Doing the wave! Seventh Grader Kam Garten is doing a wave project in the courtyard.

Testing out the temperature of the water are Physic class members Juniors Haley Miller and Bethany Hagner.

Ready, Set, Launch! Junior Lita Burton and Senior Mitch Boatman build their catapult.

Working in the lab, Juniors Brittany Wright and Mallory Lambert test out their catapult.

LANGUAGE'S

SPANISH & ENGLISH

English- This years English classes were taught by Ms. Anderson, Mrs. Keyer, Ms. Starmann, and Ms. Gilbert. Throughout the year students have learned about literature from all over the globe, grammar, research, and many other topics. Many projects went on during the English classes from Seniors Hate Week Project with Mrs. Keyer, Juniors writing letters to Veterans and the Freshmen making quill pens with Ms. Starmann.

Ms. Anderson's 11th Grade Junior class wrote letters thanking Veterans for serving our country. These students included Front row: Stephanie Land, Melissa Swinehart, Lita Burton, Brenna Elkins, Kaylyn Robinson, Misty Matson. Middle row: Skylar Hull, Jessica Walz, Mike Nowicki, Jaime Rangel, Bethany Hagner, Megha Patel, Taylor Longacre, Brooke Faulkner. Last row: Shaun Harmon, Brett Baker, Matt Eger, Cahil Krajniak, Mitch Moore, Chas Rathburn, Marcus Thornton, and Megan Keith.

Ms. Starmann's Freshmen class created quill pens while learning about William Shakespeare. Kelsey Lehman and Melanie Laferty model their pens.

Seniors Rule? Senior, Tiffanie Crocker showed her project from Mrs. Keyer's class where Seniors made up their own rules for high school.

Receiving a poetry award from the White Pigeon Library is Sophomore Mike Anderson and 8th Grader Kaleb Eastman.

Seniors Lakota Laferty, Justina Eveland, and Branson Salyer showed off their project in front of Mrs. Keyer and the class.

Winning "Best Staging of Skit" by Ms. Anderson for the play they had to create are 10th Graders Dani Chantrenne, Mike Crowl, and Riley Olsen. Different groups won various awards.

Spanish- The Spanish teacher this school year was Ms. Gilbert who was new to White Pigeon. They did many different projects this year like creating a Pinata with the preschoolers, wrote and acted out plays, and went on a field trip to a Spanish Concert.

Preparing for the play in Spanish are Seniors Mitch Boatman and Matt Crowl.

Trying to memorize their lines are Sophomores Autumn Kemp and Emilee Lane.

Spanish students went down to the pre-school room to read to them and participate in activities. High school students created a pinata for the preschoolers to try and hit and get candy out of.

SOCIAL STUDIES

"Mr. Gropp's dream trip!" Sophomore Danielle Chantrenne created her giant sized brochure on Pearl Harbor. Teachers voted on them and she won 1st place.

Mr. Gropp's US History class completed quite a few projects this year. In this one they had to create a diorama on a place where a war had taken place. The top six winners were Sophomores Janie Beauchamp, Emilee Lane, Nancy Carmona, Ryan Kemp, Cole Sellers, and Mayra Montoya.

Taking their time to make sure their map is perfect are 6th Graders Brendon Schragg-Kinsey, and Carter Grant.

Boston Tea Party! 8th Grader Ezekiel Young enjoys his yummy tea and cookies. Mrs. Beegle's class recreated the Boston tea party.

Social Studies is taught in 6th Grade through 12th. 6th Grade Social Studies includes: History, Government, Geography, and Economics on the Western Hemisphere (Not including US). 7th Grade Social Studies includes: History, Government, Geography and Economics on the Eastern Hemisphere. 8th Grade Social Studies includes US History, Government, Geography, and Economics. 9th Grade World History and 10th Grade US History is taught by Mr. Sosinski, and Mr. Gropp. 11th Grade Civics/Economics is taught by Mr. Sosinski.

Getting a break from the classroom are Sophomores Kyle Poley and Carlos Check Cinco. They listened closely to Mr. Gropp as he showed the class a WWII gun.

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology is taught by Mr. Gropp this year. Sociology has nothing to do with socializing. In this class students learn about how people behave in society and why they behave that way.

Which group should this one go in? Juniors Brittany Wright, and Jenna Walz decide which religion goes into each circle.

Rules and Regulations. Cahil Krajniak typed up his report on how the rules and regulations have changed TV and radio broadcasting.

PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology is also taught by Mr. Gropp. Psychology is the scientific study of the human mind and its functions. Students learn how the brain works. They study dreaming, sleeping, and all of the different parts of the brain.

Do they look the same? Senior Robbie Gibson observed how a preschooler's mind works. "It was interesting to see how little minds think," said Robbie Gibson.

I did it! Senior Nikki Prouty used the maze to test an experiment on whether she can complete it faster with trial and error.

ART

There are many different art classes offered in High School. The art classes on the schedule for this year were Digital Photography, Ceramics, Basic Design, Painting, Advanced Ceramics, and Sculpting. Students get to show their creative side and bring their imaginations to life! The new art teacher, Ms. Schuler, brought many new projects and ideas to the art program this year.

Making the best use of his materials, Sophomore Logan McDonald builds a sculpture out of straws. Students put their minds to work to create abstract

Focusing all his attention on his art work, Junior Chas Rathburn, took his time painting his broken project. "It still looked good in the end!" said Chas.

Senior Brock Carper works tediously on his paper mache self portrait.

Seniors Matt Crowl and Matt McNamara paint their masks made of dried clay.

Happy Halloween! Senior Matt McNamara helps a Pre-School student carve a pumpkin.

"Easy Boy." Junior Brooke Faulkner helped take care of an adult cow in her Agriscience class.

"What's up doc?" Junior Jaime Rangel dressed in surgeons clothing in his Medical Occupations class.

"Put your arm here..." Senior Kristina Reingardt played the patient as Junior Melissa Swinehart gave a demonstration in their medical occupations class.

Junior Shaun Harmon

CTE

CTE (Career Technical Education) is a program where students from different schools travel across St. Joseph County to explore one of nine possible career fields. CTE offers courses from Agriscience to Robotics, and everything in between. Students use this program to see what career they would like in the future, or even learn more about their current career choice.

Junior Devin Hoover

Get her done! Senior Jose Rubio finished putting in the support at the house his Building Trades class is building.

"I think he saw me." Junior Tyler Cruea writes computer codes in his Computer Information Technologies (CIT) class.

"Rev it up for me!" Junior Brett Baker tuned up an engine in his Auto-Tech Class.

FOODS AND NUTRITION

If food is your passion, then this is the class for you! Taught by Mrs. Jarrad, you learn about team work, the basic skills of cooking, and a fun atmosphere in the class room. This class is very hands on and group oriented. Each week you and your group pick out what you want to make for your food lab. Then you make whatever you choose and enjoy with your classmates.

After letting her potatoes cool, Senior Nikki Prouty carefully placed them in a bowl while trying not to make a mess.

After scooping the chocolate mousse into cups, Junior Brittany Wright handed them out to her classmates to enjoy.

Shake and bake! Senior Robbie Gibson carefully mixed the sauce and seasonings together inside the zip lock bag.

Every year, students from first semester foods and nutrition class team up to compete against each other and make gingerbread houses. Students pick out candy and supplies they may need to help them make the most creative gingerbread house. Students also landscape the yard using candies, crackers, and food items. Once the work is complete, the judging begins. This years first place winners were Seniors, Kayla Mishler, Dani Hochstetler, and Matt Crowl.

Grinning from success. Junior Haley Miller showed off the delicious chocolate cake her group made in the food lab.

Indulging in his food, Senior Richie DeBruine couldn't wait to eat his finished product.

Taking their time to make tiny pretzels, Junior Sammie Keegan and Sophomore Kayla Wesse tried to figure out how to twist their dough.

With careful hands, Senior Danielle Hochstetler criss-crossed the dough to make a pretzel shape.

Potato time! Senior Ashley Miller mixed her ingredients together for her twice baked potatoes.

With precaution, Sophomore Riley Olsen placed his pans of wings on the cooling racks so the whole class could dig in!

FRESHMAN FOCUS

The Freshmen gave visiting Camp Eberhart two thumbs up and a fist pump! "It was a super fun day and I wish we could go back!" exclaimed Jacob Black.

In an attempt to prevent bullying, the freshman wore orange and put their handprints on windows to remind people not to bully others. Sydney Harmon put her orange handprint on the window to support anti-bullying.

Freshmen Yeuin Spry and Kody Hull were required to make a poster with information about their possible college choices.

Learning how to save a life. Freshmen Chase Sweitzer and Riley Phelps watched as Mrs. Jarrad demonstrated how to perform CPR. "30 compressions to two ventilations" explained Mrs. Jarrad.

MIDDLE SCHOOL HEALTH

"Stop Bullying!" Mr. Shoppell's 8th Grade class hung anti-bullying posters around the school. Lacey Wickey, Madi Axe, and Chevy Case show the posters they created.

"Shhhh!" The 7th Grade health class worked quietly as they began learning about drug and tobacco prevention.

Middle school can be a crazy time for students as they are transitioning from Elementary to Middle School. Health is a new edition to the middle school class schedule and has been very helpful to the students. Mr. Shoppell has been given the task of teaching this class. Throughout the year he has taught about anti-bullying, nutrition, alcohol and drug prevention along with many other topics.

"The teacher ate our homework!" exclaimed 8th Graders Skyler DeMeyer and Madi Gremore.

BAND

High School & Middle School Band

Focusing on her sheet music, Sophomore Nancy Carmona played her best at the Christmas Concert.

Junior Megha Patel said, "I love playing in front of the crowd, band is my favorite class!"

Marching Band! The band showed off their talent playing for the crowd before one of the home football games.

Jingle all the way! Freshman Melanie Laferty kept the Jingle Bell beat at the Winter Concert.

Keeping it classy are, Sophomores Ryan Kemp and Brianna Lapham and Senior Mark Young.

Getting jazzy on his sax is Sixth Grader Carlos Castro at the Winter Concert.

Band is a curricular and extra-curricular activity. All bands perform at four formal concerts and take part in one concert band festival. The High School band also performs for special school events that are held throughout the year. The High School marching band performs for all home football games and the pep band performs for select home basketball games offering sideline and half-time entertainment. The High School and 8th Grade band students march in the Holland Tulip Festival's Volksparade, perform at the Graduation Ceremonies and the Memorial Day Service. - Mrs. Benoit

Sixth Grader Jordynn Ivastanin toots her horn at the concert.

Flutes

Eighth Grader Brooke Boocher and Seventh Grader Chevy Case.

Tuba
Seventh Grader Hayden Krogh.

Clarinet
Seventh Graders Kiley Lowery and Destiny Lukowski.

Percussion

Seventh Grader Brandon Grate.

HISTORY OF ROCK AND ROLL

History of Rock and Roll is the history of various music and music artists from the 1930's to the present. Students write notes from power points, watch movies and music videos, and participate in fun group activities! The class is taught by Mrs. Benoit, who is also the band director.

Typing time! Working on his power point, which counts as his final exam, is Senior Branson Salyer.

PIANO

Cody McKnight

This is the third year that Piano (actually titled Instrumental Keyboarding) has been offered at White Pigeon. Students learn piano notes, and how to play classical music and modern songs. The class is taught by Mrs. Benoit.

Play those scales! Sophomore Shelby Robinson practices playing the notes on her sheet music.

What's the score? Sophomores Destinee Duke and Danielle Chantrenne collaborate to perform "Chopsticks".

Do re mi! Senior Paige Goldman works hard to perfect her skills on the Yamaha keyboard.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Page By:
Michael
Christian
Miller

A great way to learn what a teacher does to prepare for the beginning of their day, to the end of their day, is the Experiential Learning class. This class is offered for high school students who are interested in becoming future teachers and want an inside look at the everyday lives of our teachers.

Little bit of glue, little bit of glitter and you've got one bedazzled pumpkin! Junior Ashley Stewart helped with designs for Halloween.

Let's make something! Senior Montana Barton created her bulletin board for the Elementary's library. "I loved when I got to read to the kids," said Montana.

Junior Allison Bailey is working on her class requirement -- 'Create an Assignment' -- in the Elementary's craft/cutting room.

Working hard, grading student's papers for Mrs. Meadows's first grade class is Senior Jordan Ragsdale.

Playing offense in his free time, 6th Grader Aaron Weaver blocked his opponent from the ball.

Serving it up is 6th Grader Elizabeth Phillips. "Playing volleyball is one of my favorite activities in class."

Time to stretch those muscles! The weight training class, prepared themselves for the day.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical Education classes are taught by Mr. Shoppell, Mr. Twichell, Mr. Strawser, and Mrs. Holt. The classes offer all different kinds of activities to keep students motivated like basketball, volleyball, dodgeball and even archery. One of the more popular classes that is offered is Weight Training.

No... No, hold the ball like this! Sophomore DeShawn Evins teaches Sophomore Kathryn Mahler how to shoot the ball.

COMPUTERS

Computer Applications

Computer Applications is taught by Mrs. Gates. In this class students learn about the different Microsoft Office 2010 programs. Students learn the intermediate and advanced features of Word, Excel, and Power Point that will help them in High School and in the future.

Yes! I'm almost done with my lesson said Freshman Avery Zammit. The books helped students complete their lessons.

Typing in the data from his book into the Microsoft Excel program is Freshman Chancelor Simons.

Keyboarding

8th Grade Keyboarding/Computers is also taught by Mrs. Gates. Students learn the proper way to type; Which fingers presses which key, and how to sit correctly when typing. Students cover the basics of Microsoft Word, Excel and Power Point so they are prepared to complete High School assignments.

Focused in on their keyboarding assignment is 8th Graders Kevin Barnes and Kathryn Bedard.

Typing the proper way, and using the correct fingers is 8th Grader Birdie Murphy.

CAREERS

Opening up the locker is 8th Grader Hailey Carper. The class put on the play The Case of the Suffocated 7th grader.

Is this right? 8th Grader Robyn Watson asks the instructor if she is doing it right. The Students learn how to change a tire.

8th Grade students have to plan a lot before high school. They begin to look into different careers and get an idea about what they want to do for the rest of their life. Students learn about the drama career. They have learned and performed two different plays. There was also a 'Non-Traditional career day' for girls, where the students learned about different non-traditional careers and what they require you to do. Students also used the Moodle Program to complete a program called Career Forward that gives them helpful information about how to begin exploring careers and how classes in high school can help them to make choices about their career path.

Carefully paying attention what to do are 8th Graders Grace Keyer, Olivia Rathburn, and Delainy Krebs.

Moodle! 8th Grader Hailey Personette answers the questions as she listens to the video playing.

YEARBOOK

Yearbook Advisor: Mrs. Gates

Yearbook is a class of Juniors and Seniors that capture memories of the school year. Throughout the year, the yearbook staff members take pictures, write captions, interview people, sell ads, and use the Adobe InDesign program to create pages. The ads the students sell are posted outside the entry door for everyone to see and help to keep our book affordable for all students.

The Student Council Officers for 2013 are Seniors Cody McKnight as President, Dani Hoshstetler as V.P., Justina Eveland as Secretary, and Lizzy Holmes as Treasurer.

Preparing his bagel is Sophomore Student Council member Riley Olsen. Bagels and hot chocolate were available to all who attended the Read-a-thon.

MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL

Middle School Student Council is fairly new to the middle school hallway. Mrs. Beegle and Mrs. Poley had the opportunity to be club advisors. To be nominated onto Student Council students must have a certain amount of their peers and faculty members sign a ballet. Once they have turned in their ballets the students vote during lunch to decide who the official members are. Middle School Student Council is a great way for younger students to get a feel of what being in a high school club will be like.

Front row: Hailey Personette (8), Katie Long (6), Brandon Grafe (7), Kaitlyn Caraway (7), Robyn Watson (8). Back row: Jair Luna (8), Delainy Krebs (8), Paige Brock (7), and Zane Shoppell (8) are the members of 2013 Middle School Student Council. During the year they have worked at a bake sale along with being good examples for their classmates.

Elected as officers of Student Council were Vice President, Delainy Krebs, Secretary, Robyn Watson, and President Zane Shoppell.

Some of the members are pictured here talking about many different topics in their Student Council meeting. Paige Brock takes some notes to help keep everyone organized.

MATH MEET

8th Grade

Math Meet is a competition where students take a math test that they do in a limited amount of time. The tests are then graded and awarded points for the correct answers. This year we had three teams of math-a-letes in the competition. The teams were coached by Mrs. Poley and Mrs. Williams

Front row:
Jordan Olsen,
and Robyn
Watson.
Back row:
Cole Grant,
Zane Shoppell,
and Michael Bright.

Front row:
Sidney Mishler,
and Casey Soto.
Back row:
Noah Hagen,
Lizzy Anderson,
and Noah Krull.

6th Grade

Congratulations to the Middle School Math Meet team. The 8th Graders earned two 4th place positions and missed a 3rd place ribbon by a tenth of a point. The 7th Graders earned a 5th place finish and the 6th Graders were in the top 20. Great job math-a-letes!

- Mrs. Poley

INTERACT

Four Way Test Of Interact

Of the things we think, say, and do...

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Is it beneficial to all concerned?

2013 MEMBERS

Interact is a club at White Pigeon that gets students involved in their school and community. It's a club that completes many community activities. The Interact club is advised by Rotarian, Dan Cropsy. Some activities the students participate in include: cleaning the golf courses, painting bathrooms, having a canned food drive, cleaning the White Pigeon court yard, ringing bells for the Salvation Army and many others. Each year the club takes a field trip around the area to see the different types of jobs. This year the club took a field trip to the K-Wings Stadium to learn how the stadium works and to see if they would like to pursue any of those career choices. Interact also has a program called "lunch buddies", where members from the group go to go over to the elementary and mentor a young student that needs someone extra to talk to.

Raking the leaves at Green Valley for some community service hours are Seniors Eric Anderson, Patrick Lowery, Mitch Boatman, Parker Krogh and Sophomore Cody Hagen.

Having a fun filled day! These are some of the Interact kids that went on the field trip to the K-Wings Stadium.

Ring Ring Ring! Sophomores Haley Owens and Ryan Kemp stand out in the cold to raise money for the Salvation Army.

Getting everything tidy. Senior Kym Keckler cleans all the leaves out the rocks in the High school Courtyard to make everything look brand new.

Listening closely. The Interact Club concentrates on Jackson Kaguri's life story. His speech was very touching.

Spanish Club

This is our first year for a Spanish Club at our school. New Spanish teacher, Senorita Gilbert who teaches both High School and Middle School Spanish thought it would be fun for students to get together and learn about Spanish Culture. Students in the club met after school during first semester to participate in activities that helped to enhance what they had learned in class.

Look at those moves! Freshmen Kaitlyn Colvin and Mckenna Bolinger become partners in the lively Salsa Dance.

Students who participated in the club were: Freshmen: Makenna Bolinger, Kaitlyn Colvin, Sydney Harmon, Denise Rubio and Taylor Spear. Sophomores: Nancy Carmona, Africa Gomez, Breanna Griffiths, Autumn Kemp, Ryan Kemp, Emilee Lane, Brianna Lapham, Alaina Maas, Haley Owens, and Alexis Walters. Juniors: Allie Bailey and Haley Miller. Seniors: Olivia Sutton and Teri Weaver.

Sophomores Brianna Lapham and Hailey Owens, Senorita Gilbert, and Junior Allie Bailey celebrated Day of the Dead, a holiday celebrated in central and southern Mexico during November by making Sugar Skulls.

Freshmen Denise Rubio and Kaitlyn Colvin, and Senior Teri Weaver hand molded their Sugar Skulls which are a traditional folk art from Southern Mexico used to celebrate Day of the Dead.

Peer Mediation

Members of Peer Mediation are chosen because of their caring nature and ability to reason. These students are trained to help others find a common ground. Two mediators meet with two students who are in conflict and try to help students see the problem "issue" from the others point of view. Students who are involved in a mediation are encouraged to settle their issues so they can move on. Peer Mediators also promote kindness and non-bullying around our school.

Shortly before Thanksgiving, Peer Mediation Members offered students an opportunity to write "We Are Thankful for..." notes on construction paper turkeys to help remind everyone that there is always something to be thankful for.

Valentines day offered another opportunity for students to recognize their friends and remind them that they are special. Students purchased a candygram valentine and wrote a brief message. Peer Mediation members delivered the messages on Valentines Day.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Being selected to National Honor Society is a great honor to receive in high school. Every year the members of NHS take a group of under privileged 3rd grade students Christmas shopping. The members of NHS go to families and business' and ask for donations, they sponsor bake sales at home events, and they run a classroom competition to collect the money needed to take the young kids shopping. The NHS Members are assigned a student that they help select gift items for, they also select one gift for each of their family members.

National Honor Society holds a new student welcome at the beginning of the year to explain all about sports, clubs, and activities offered at our school. New students are offered finger foods and drinks and then sit and listen to NHS members talk about our school. Seniors Patrick Lowery and DJ Minnich talk with the new students and help to answer their questions.

The 2012 - 2013 National Honor Society Inductees are (seated on the left) - Front row: Junior Rachel Brock, Seniors Matt Crowl and Paige Goldman, Junior Shaun Harmon. Middle row: Senior Elizabeth Holmes, Juniors Megan Keith, Cahil Krajniak, and Taylor Longacre. Back Row: Juniors Megha Patel, Jaimie Rangel, Charles Rathburn, William Roose, and Senior Dakota Stamp. Second year members are (seated on the right) - Front row: Seniors Tabi Miller, Kayla Mishler, and Mark Young. Middle row: Seniors DJ Minnich, Lakota Laferty, Robbie Gibson, and Cody McKnight. Back row: Seniors Jose Rubio, Carson Krull, Patrick Lowery, Justina Eveland, and Montana Barton.

Seniors Matt Crowl and Cody McKnight are impressed at how much money they raised so far. NHS puts on a bake sale at most of the varsity home basketball games.

Juniors Megan Keith, Jaimie Rangel, and Charles Rathburn and Seniors Patrick Lowery and Carson Krull pause from selling baked goods to Chief basketball fans. Members sign up to work the bake sale at different home basketball games.

Seniors Paige Goldman and Kayla Mishler work on their selling skills by trying to lure customers in at a bake sale. All proceeds made from the sale go towards the annual Operation Christmas trip.

QUIZ BOWL

Middle School Quiz Bowl was coached by Mrs. Beegle and Mrs. Williams. This years team placed 4th. "I can't believe we were one point away from getting a trophy" said Mrs. Williams. They were ahead of Constantine in the finals.

If you think you know everything. Then Quiz Bowl is the club for you! At Quiz Bowl competitions students are asked random questions about anything, and everything. For every question they get right they earn points.

High School Quiz Bowl was coached by Ms. Anderson. We had 4 different teams this year for high school. The 1st team was Mitch Boatman (12), Alaina Maas (10), Nancy Carmona (10), Raul Carmona (9), and Jaime Rangel (11). They placed 3rd out of 19 teams at this years competition.

Middle School Team

High School Team

6TH GRADE CLUE-ME-IN

Clue-Me-In is a club where students are required to read certain books. During the competitions they are given different clues on one of the books and they have to try to figure out which book the clue comes from. They buzz in with their answer.

There was a total of six schools this year. We came in 5th place with 202 points.

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT

Youth in Government (or YIG, for short) is one of the best ways to learn about the government. This program allows students to become acting state legislators, governors, lawyers, lobbyists, and committee chairs in a government setting. These students are challenged with many of the issues our real legislators face in their elected offices. There are many differences between the Middle School and High School conferences, with the main change being that the Middle School conference is three days long, while the High School conference is five days long.

HIGH SCHOOL YIG

Taking a stand! Sophomore Mike Crowl speaks at a podium to oppose amendments made to one of the bills in the House of Representatives.

Sitting' and reading! Senior Lakota Laferty relaxes in one of Best Western's meeting rooms while she mentally goes over the obligations of the Written Press Team. Written Press is the newspaper committee that covers the political happenings at YIG.

Listening is key! Junior Taylor Longacre listens to one of the other members of the House of Representatives as they voice their opinion on one of the many bills.

Rock the vote! Sophomores Jack Tippman and Mike Crowl, along with Freshman Grace Baker, fill out their ballots to vote for the next youth governor of the 2014 March Conference.

MIDDLE SCHOOL YIG

For he's a jolly good fellow! The Middle School Yiglets surprise Seventh Grader Noah Hagen with a cake for his birthday in his hotel room.

This meeting is now in session! Eighth Grader Alison Long situates herself in one of the official House chairs as she writes down notes pertaining to the upcoming bills that will be discussed.

Stumped! Eighth Grader Hailey Carper contemplates the results of passing or rejecting a bill affecting the state of Michigan. Even though she is only one vote, all votes are still important at YIG, and generally in politics.

On the schedule at YIG is the general assembly. All delegates go to the main ballroom to swear under oath the duties of a YIG delegate. Also in attendance are advisors for each school and committee, along with alumni, who help with the YIG program.

We're all in this together! The Eighth Graders take a break from their busy meetings to pose at the Capitol Building in Lansing. The Capitol Building is the main setting for the students to act in their various government roles.

PEPBAND

Hail to 'ole WPHS... When they get started, you know something great just happened. During the home games the Pepband members play their hearts out in support of the Varsity Basketball team. Conducted by Mrs. Benoit, the band performs at home Varsity Basketball games.

"And a one, a two, a three..." Sophomore Shelby Robinson, Freshman Alea Holliday, Junior Natasha Mercer, and Sophomore Breanna Griffis play our school song.

On the clarinets are Sophomores Autumn Kemp and Kasandra Hershberger.

"Play it up!" Sophomores Curtis Salazar and Alaina Maas play their trumpets in High School Pepband.

Leading the saxophone's is Senior Mark Young with Sophomores Ryan Kemp and Brianna Lapham, and Senior Tabitha Miller.

"Play that funky music!" The band helps cheer on the Varsity Boys during Friday night games and helps keep the crowd pumped up throughout the game.

DRUMLINE

During half time at most home games you can hear the "rat-a-tat-tat" of the snares, and the "bum bum bum" of the basses. The Drumline helps get the fans pumped up, and keeps them entertained during the games.

Sophomores Kyle Poley and Alexis Walters play the bass drums in the Drumlines drum shows.

"What a show!" Senior: David Minnich, Junior Michael Nowicki, and Sophomore Lucas Osborn wrap up the drum show during half-time.

"Keep the Beat!" Eighth Graders Jair Luna, Zane Shoppell, and Seventh Grader Brandon Grafe show their skills during the game.

Lets make some noise! Drumline Section Leader, Senior David Minnich.

"Rock it out!" Freshman Austin Walters and Junior Michael Nowicki drum it out during the Drumline drum show.

SCIENCE OLYMPIAD

Experimenting! Sophomores Lexi Walters and Nancy Carmona test out their project hoping for that blue ribbon!

Presentation time! Junior Shaun Harmon and Sophomore Cole Sellers show the judge how to get the job done.

Every year during the first week of March the Regional Science Olympiad convenes at Kalamazoo Valley Community College. Nearly twenty schools competed this year for the top ranking in the various science competitions. These events ranged from building thermodynamic devices to circuit lab, Fermi questions, forestry and other activities to test science knowledge. Mary Middleton is the High School coach for White Pigeon, Joseph Morsaw assisted in the building events. Every year fifteen students, plus five alternates, join the team and pick two or three events in which to compete. The Middle School and High School teams both placed in many of the events. - Mary Middleton

Rocking their goggles, Eighth Graders Hailey Carper and Alison Long are being extra careful while using chemicals.

Taking a break from experimenting, Seniors Lizzy Holmes and Mark Young talk about their last year being on the team.

Hoping to receive high scores in their activity, Juniors Taylor Longacre and Megha Patel push to the finish.

Staying focused, Seniors Patrick Lowery and Mark Young go over their experiment to make sure everything is correct.

Homecoming Festivities

The Sophomore and Senior classes strut their Chief pride on Friday before the big game. The Sophomores "Tim Tebow" to show their love for football! The Seniors strike one more pose before they participate in the Homecoming Parade.

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's the Junior girls to the rescue! Allie Bailey, Ashley Stewart, Haley Miller, and Jasmyne Reeves are here to save the day!

Bazinga! Junior Chas Rathburn wishes he could be a part of the Big Bang Theory cast.

Standing out, the Junior class dressed up for neon day. Starting out the week in neon colored clothes was a great way to begin the bright week of Homecoming!

Let the games begin...

Homecoming is a great way to get students involved in fun activities and to show your school spirit. It is also a week out of the school year where classmates can work together to get first place. From the silly dress-up days to the class competitions, the fun is never-ending.

Ouch! Juniors, Bethany Hagner, Chas Rathburn, Megha Patel, and Taylor Longacre along with Senior DJ Minnich fake an injury to gain points for the class competition.

"Chief says..." Juniors Cahil Krajniak and Brittany Wright along with Senior Kayla Lapham are the final three in the last round of "Chief Says".

Where did everybody go? Juniors Marcus Thornton and Bethany Hagner volunteer to pin the mustache on the Viking.

The pressure is on! Sophomore Destinee Duke concentrates as she tries to "Knock the Viking Down".

"Don't Stop Believing!" Freshmen Melanie Laferty and Yeuin Spry sing their hearts out in "The Voice".

Powderpuff Football

Each year during Homecoming students participate in a parade where each class shows their school spirit. Showing their pride for the Freshman class is Kelsey Lehman, David Miller, and Kody Hull. For the Sophomore's Jack Tippman, Kyle Kauffman, Christian Ryall-Shoup, Corey Cloud, and Carlos Check Cinco. For the Junior's Taylor Longacre, Devin Hoover, Mitchell Moore, Marcus Thornton, and Megha Patel. For the Senior's Patrick Lowery, Dakota Laferty, and Chad Poling.

And the band played on! Freshman Whitney Fiells and the Band led the parade through town.

Proud to be wearing Chief colors are Sophomore Breanne McRoberts, Alexandria Russell-Mills, Monica Andaverde, and Kaylee Strawser.

Homecoming Assembly

In the zone and ready to get the ball rolling is Senior Kayla Mishler, Eighth Grader Jordan Olsen, Sophomore DeShawn Evins and Freshman Kathrina Hagner.

The weight of the Sophomore class is in Cynthia Flood's hands as she tries to have the longest time holding the weights.

Ready to start playing an intense game of "Musical Chairs" is Freshman Yeuin Spry.

Pulling in a win are the Senior powderpuff girl's: Tabi Miller, Kristina Reingardt, Chelsea Tovar, Tiffanie Crocker, McKayla Thomas, Kayla Lapham, Kayla Mishler, Ashley Miller, Dani Hochstetler, Paige Goldman, Lizzy Holmes, Nikki Prouty, and Allie Lucas.

The Eighth Grade class played a fast pace game of "Under and over" as Ms. Schuler cheered them on.

Ready... Set... Go. Racing to the finish-line and ready to put that fire out is Junior Brittany Wright, Senior Allie Lucas, Freshman Chase Sweltzer, Sophomore Cynthia Flood, Freshman Austin Walters, and Sixth Grader Samantha Crothers.

Even in the chilly weather, the girls still managed to look amazing Friday night during the Homecoming football game. Two Freshmen, two Sophomores, and two Juniors were chosen by their classmates to represent their class during halftime. Five Senior couples are elected to run for King and Queen. Friday at school, the entire high school watched a video of the Seniors being asked questions by Student Council.

Students were then given the opportunity to vote for King and Queen. This years King and Queen were Brock Carper and Jordan Ragsdale. The King and Queen were asked their opinion on the night, they responded, "It was a little awkward being cousins but it was really special to win together." said Seniors Jordan Ragsdale and Brock Carper.

Freshman Camp Eberhart

Camp Eberhart, a place full of wonder, team building, and leadership building activities! Each year the Freshman class goes to Camp Eberhart to participate in activities to bring the classmates closer together...well, they ARE going to be together for three more years!

When there's a will, there's a way! Cheyenne Yoder got out of a drain-pipe with help from a Camp Eberhart counselor.

What a tree-hugger! Kala Zimmerman wrapped her arms around a bark-covered plant, in most cultures called a "tree".

Drenched! Drying off after their canoe "accidentally" flipped over are Kala Zimmerman, Jamie Silk, Abigail Earl, and Alea Holliday.

Ready to walk the line? Lucas Delp anxiously awaits the signal to walk on the high ropes to the next checkpoint. Before you walk on the rope to a checkpoint, you must have the signal from the "walker" in front of you that it's safe to go, because you don't want too many people on one rope.

Got rope? Raul Carmona securely gripped the rope hooked to a climber on the rock wall so the climber wouldn't fall and get hurt.

Almost got it! Following a camp counselor's safety demonstration, Yeuin Spry and Melanie Laferty fastened their harness belts.

Community Service

Showing her creativity is Junior Morgan Bailey who helped an Elementary student dry her hand painted bag at Artworks Day. "It was great hanging with the kids and watching their excitement as they finished a project!" said Morgan.

Front row: Cahil Krajniak (11), Tiffanie Crocker (12), Cory Snook (11), Ryan Kemp (10), Billy Roose (11). Middle Row: Janie Beauchamp (10), Kasandra Hershberger (10), Danni Chantrenne (10), Allie Bailey (11), Bethany Hagner (11), Kamryn Six (10), and Haley Owens (10). Back row: Tabitha Miller (12), Kaylyn Robinson (11), Rachel Brock (11), Carson Krull (12), Sadie Conley (12), Cody McKnight (12), Robbie Gibson (12), and Brock Carper (12). These students received a Community Service Certificate in recognition of all their volunteer community service work.

Unite against Bullying! The freshman class sponsored an event to bring awareness to the big issue of bullying in schools. Students dressed in orange, like Junior Allie Bailey, met in the gym and carried balloons that they popped to "pop" bullying out of school!

Every year students and staff buy Dig Pink T-Shirts for the girls volleyball quad to raise money for the fight against breast cancer. This year was no different. During breast cancer awareness month, students from White Pigeon raised money with three other schools and donated it all to breast cancer awareness. White Pigeon Community alone raised $700 towards cancer research.

Twenty-seven White Pigeon Elementary students raised $795 for the American Heart Association in the Jump Rope for Heart fundraiser. High school students helped the students complete their jump rope pledges by running stations in the gym where elementary students hopped, double-dutched, and jumped rope. The High School students that helped were: Front row: Jordan Ragsdale (12), Mallory Lambert (11), and Mark Young (12). Middle row: Natasha Mercer (11) and Tabitha Miller (12). Back row: Tiffanie Crocker (12), and Stephanie Land (11).

Community service is a very important part of White Pigeon High School. Throughout the school year students have been involved in many different services such as Jump Rope for Heart, Dig Pink Volleyball Quad, Anti-Bullying Awareness Day and Artworks Day. Some students received a Community Service Award for going above and beyond the required amount of community service hours. Volunteering for the White Pigeon Community is always a fun and a rewarding time in High School for our students.

Chief Bash

In the winter of 2011, White Pigeon Middle/High School staff came up with the idea of rewarding their students with a Chief Bash. This year, they kept up with the new tradition. During first semester Chief Bash, students got out of afternoon classes to play cards, Minute to Win It, bingo, video games, karaoke, and play on the inflatables. After all of the activities, the students went to the gym and had an awards ceremony where the staff drew out Chief Pride tickets from the collection of tickets the students had earned throughout the year. The winning students won prizes. There was a drawing for middle school students and a drawing for the high school students.

Fight! During the bash, students have the chance to play on the inflatables, including an obstacle course, and a boxing ring.

Bingo! Freshmen Abigail Earl, Whitney Fielis, and Kayla Wallace place their chips during the bingo games.

Enjoying a break and a snack in the cafeteria are Seniors Sadie Conley, Nicole Prouty, and Jordan Ragsdale.

You have a minute to win it! Eighth Grader Olivia Rathburn concentrates as she tries to stack the blocks during Minute-to-Win-It.

Showing off their moves in Just Dance are freshmen Jared Mroz, Lucas Delp, and Jacob Black.

Get set... GO! Juniors Chas Rathburn and Bethany Hagner race to the finish on the inflatables.

Awards Ceremony

To pick the students winners, the teaching staff drew Chief Pride tickets out of the tubs where every ticket earned by the students this school year was saved.

Winning ten dollar gift cards for the middle school are Front Row: Seventh Grader Kayley Six, Sixth Grader Tyler Goins, Seventh Grader Casey Soto, and Sixth Grader Dakota Conley. Back Row: Seventh Grader Nathanael Reed, Eighth Graders Izak Eveland and Robyn Watson, and Seventh Grader Alden Adams.

And the BIG winners were.... This year, the big prizes were new ipods. Seventh Grader Anna Fusaro, and Senior Drew Sellers were the lucky winners.

Chief Bash ★★ ★★ Awards Ceremony ★★ ★★

Great students should always be rewarded. Students had a Chief Bash at the end of the year, to celebrate all of their hard work. They played many different games outside on the track and to top it off, they had ice cream to cool off. These High School and Middle School students showed how hard they can work in their classrooms this year, and it definitely paid off in the end! Big winners for the second semester were Sophomore Laney Byler and Seventh Grader Joe McIntyre, who both won an iHome. Junior Jordan Lucas and Eighth Grader Grace Keyer won the grand prize of an iPod touch! Congratulations!

LUNCH TIME ACTIVITY

Freshman Logan Shafer and Sophomore William Stamp competed against one another.

Winterfest is about getting involved and having fun with your classmates. From the activities at lunch that are planned by Student Council for the student body to participate in, to the boy's Powderpuff volleyball game. The dress up days and lunch time activities were: Tuesday - Gender Bender Day, Wednesday - Wear Pink Day, Thursday - Febroween, and Friday - Red and Black. This year the lunch time activity was an Oreo cookie eating contest, where students from each class came together to eat as many cookies as they could in 60 seconds. The winner of the lunch activity contest was awarded points for their class. At the end of the week, all points were tallied and the winning class was announced. The Winterfest 2013 winning class was the Seniors.

In White Pigeon it is a tradition that once a year, the Junior and Senior Boys go head to head in a best two-out-of-three volleyball competition. The first team to twenty-five points wins the game. This year the Class of 2014, the Juniors, went up against the Class of 2013, the Seniors. This year, the Seniors beat the Juniors, winning two games to complete the tournament.

"Up and over..." Senior Brock Carper throws the ball up to serve it over to the junior boys during the game.

"Be Ready!" Seniors Dylan Stamp, Cody McKnight, and Chris Johnson are ready for the ball to be served.

Senior Robbie Gibson takes a breather during the game. "We're tough and we'll win this game, watch and see," said Robbie.

"Dive!" Senior Richie DeBruine dives at the ball in an attempt to keep the ball in play.

Junior Cahil Krajniak serves the ball to the Seniors hoping for an Ace.

"Huddle up!" The Juniors huddle up to discuss their plan for the game.

"And here we go..." Junior Jaime Rengel gets ready to serve to the Seniors.

"Service!" Junior Matt Eger serves the ball to the Seniors in the Powder Puff game.

Gaining a point for the senior team is Senior Matt McNamara.

Help! Senior Cody McKnight was thrown off his donkey after trying to ride the donkey.

This year the Sophomore class held a Donkey Basketball game. The game consisted of the White Pigeon Fire Department, Central Elementary Staff, the Class of 2013, and the Middle/High School Staff. Starting off the game were the Elementary Staff vs. the Seniors, ending with the Seniors winning. During the second round, the Middle/High School Staff vs. the Fire Department, ending with the Middle/High School Staff winning. After this game, everyone gave the donkeys a break and gave little kids rides around the gym. To end the night, the Seniors vs. the Middle/High School Staff, ending with the Middle/High School Staff being the victors of the night.

Senior Kayla Lapham

Senior Matt Crowl

Senior Branson Salyer

Seniors Lizzy Holmes and Danielle Hochstetler successfully get on their donkeys and make it down the court to help the team to score.

Taking a break from the game, some of the seniors sit together to cool off from the intense game they had just played.

Now what? Senior Lakota Laferty waits patiently for her donkey to get up off the floor so she can try to get on and join the game.

Come on!! Playing "Tug of War" with the donkey, Eric Anderson tried to pull his donkey down the court to help his teammates.

Craig Tornquist

That's some big hair! The contestants Lauryn Bolinger, Genesis Hufford, Olivia Rathburn, Lacey Wickey, and Hailey Personette each picked a stylist who went to work with a brush and hairspray to create the "biggest" hairdo.

The winner is... Hailey Personette. Hailey was crowned the Big Hair Queen. Hailey sat at her throne draped in her fancy cape with her golden crown while the crowd along with Craig sang the "Big Hairy Anthem"

You are my hair queen! The new Queens stylist Hailey Carper, Queen Hailey Personette, and Mr. Tornquist celebrate before the "Big Hairy Anthem" board.

Water sounds nice! Volunteers participated in the saltine cracker challenge. They were asked to eat crackers and then be the first to whistle. The volunteers were Nikol Black, Trevor Burks, Chloe Cornwell, Hunter Rummier, and Stephanie Roose

Winning the saltine cracker challenge was Hunter Rummier and because he was willing to take a risk he got a prize of a silver dollar.

Craig Tornquist is a comedian who entertained the eighth grade students while encouraging them to develop and pursue their own dreams. At the same time, he challenged them to make wise decisions during their teen years that will directly impact their future opportunities. During the show, Craig Tornquist offered opportunities in the form of contests to the students that challenged them to become involved and be positive risk takers.

Six foot nine inches tall! Mikel Watkins was interviewed on the Tornquist show. When asked to pretend it was ten years from now, Mikel explained that he would be a 6'9" tall NBA star.

Sweet Dance Moves! Kevin Barnes and Zane Shoppell backup Craig with their great dance moves.

Are you a risk taker? If you are, stand up, clap your hands and shout "THAT'S ME" every time Craig asks a question that applies to you. This game was a reminder to students to participate in school.

6th Grade Chicago Field Trip

Floating in air are Carlos Castro, Kyle Black, and Dominic Solis as they sit on the glass floor at the top of the Willis Tower.

Ready for battle are Carter Grant, Sam Mast, and Aaron Weaver as they show off their swords and crowns from Medieval Times Castle.

Zabra Heitger, Kassy Whitney, and Kimberlee Slusher explore the Field Museum.

Cheers! Kodi Bronke, Austin Miller, and Mitchell Howe enjoy their evening at Medieval Times.

Every year the 6th Grade students have the opportunity to take a field trip to Chicago for the day. This year was no different. While on the trip, they went to the Field Museum, Rainforest Cafe for lunch, the Lincoln Zoo, the Willis Tower, and stopped for dinner and a show at Medieval Times Castle. Students, parents, and teachers had a blast. Mrs. Dayharsh, 6th Grade teacher, planned the event.

Waiting for the show to begin are Colline Collins, Tarah McClure, and Mackenzie Carper.

Dining in the Rainforest Cafe are Katie Long and Hannah Schmitendorff.

Waiting patiently for the show to begin is Clark Miller.

Middle School Awards

Pages by: Michael Christian Miller

Seventh Grader Hunter Jourdan and 8th Grader Gavin Kopf are excited about being out of their classes and participating in rewards day. Jourdan and Kopf pose as they wait for their first round of bowling to start.

Taking a break from bowling to get a bite to eat is Eighth Grader Leah Stiver. Leah was just one of the many students that passed all of their classes and was able to enjoy their time bowling with friends.

Group together now! Sixth Graders Mackenzie Carper-Bergakker, Sarah McClure, Jerelixa Garcia, Maddison Andrews, Brianna Herrick and Colline Collins take a break from bowling, to gather together and take a picture to remember their special day going out and bowling.

Let's get it started! Sixth Graders Carlos Castro, Seth Eastman, Katie Long, and Kasandra Whitney are all excited to start bowling against one another, however they had to wait for their game to begin as they needed assistance from Mrs. Ziegler on how to get the score board to start.

Say Cheese! Seventh Graders Paige Brock, Kiley Lowery, and Angela Gibson are all hyped up with excitement about their entertainment. "Even though I wasn't a winner, I wouldn't trade this day for another day of classes, homework, and teachers," said, Kiley Lowery.

Middle School Awards day is for students who passed all of their classes each nine weeks. Students who met this goal were rewarded with an activity day. A morning of bowling at Sturgis Bowl, a movie day at school, a trip to Eby Pines' Skating Rink and a fun day at Camp Eberhart. The events are organized by the Middle School Student Council and their advisors to reward students for being successful in their classes and for their good behavior. Nearly 140 students earned the privilege to participate in award days.

"Shh... it's movie time!" Seventh Grader Donovan Snook sits back after getting his drink and popcorn. Snook was ready to kick his feet up and watch "Here Comes the Boom" that was playing in Mrs. Beegles room.

Movie Time! Seventh Grader Aiden Admas is all smiles for the camera, right before they hit the lights to watch "The Dark Knight Rises" which was just one of the four different movies that were planned for the students to watch.

Teacher's little helpers! Eighth Graders Hailey Personette and Lauryn Bolinger both helped Mrs. Poley pass out popcorn and bottles of water to students during the movies. Each student got unlimited amounts of popcorn and drinks.

Look this Way! At Eby Pine's Skating Rink, Seventh Graders Kaitlyn Beauchamp, Moly Monsen, Sarah Evilsizor, and Makayla Meyers took a break in the skating-rink's break room for a bit before getting back up to skate some more.

What a fun day for Eighth Grader Hailey Personette and Lauryn Bolinger, Seventh Graders Paige Brock, Brandon Grafe, Eighth Grader Delainy Krebs, Sixth Graders Katie Long and Kasandra Whitney, and Eighth Grader Zane Shoppell.

Safety first! The Seventh Grade class listened to the high ropes course instructor talk about the safety rules and how important it is to be safe while climbing around on wires and planks that are about forty to fifty feet in the air and how important it is to have fun and see the world from a different view.

Staying a float! Enjoying their time swimming in Corey Lake, being taught a brief history on the evolution of the canoe, the parts of the paddle and how to safely maneuver are Eighth Grader Nikol Black and Seventh Graders Audrey Baker and Morgan McDonald.

Seeing the world from a bird's eye view is Seventh Grader Sebastian Castro, a Camp Eberhart Instructor, Seventh Graders Hayden Krogh, and Noah Hagen, who decided to show off their courage, by walking on the High Challenge Ropes that are 15 - 30 feet up in the trees.

camp eberhart

So so funny bone! Seventh Grader Courtney Delarye sings along with her classmates to the song "Silly Willy." "My day at Camp was amazing, though it rained and it ended early, the High Challenge made up for it."

Singing "Boom Chicka Boom" are Eighth Graders Grace Keyer, Skyler DeMeyer and Madison Gremore. "I'm pretty sure that we were staring at Sean, the camp's counselor when they took this photo," said DeMeyer.

Like a banana! Getting up in the middle of all their classmates singing and busting some dance moves to the song "Like A Banana" are Eighth Graders Hailey Carper and Madison Axe.

Always on Target! Being taught one-on-one about how to safely use a recurve bow as well as being taught how to properly aim at the target's bull's eye, is Sixth Grader Dominic Solis.

Bull's Eye! Sixth Grader Carlos Castro participating in Archery with his other classmates during their awards day, students learn about how to use a bow and arrows and understand the history of Archery.

Wow Horsey! Mrs. Dayharsh and Mrs. Beegle rode horses out on the trail that is setup for the riding programs. The trails are for any student or staff that have had experience in riding horses.

Hey there down below! Eighth Grader Lacey Wickey turns back for a quick picture. Lacey was just one of the students that got to show off her courage by climbing to the very top of the wall.

Chief Fans!

Who! Cheering on the Basketball team for the win is Senior Danielle Hochstetler. "It's so great to be a part of the crowd even though it was crowded," said Danielle.

Who! Who! Who! Led by Junior Chas Rathburn, the Chief fans are getting pumped up at an assembly doing the great roller coaster cheer everyone loves. "Watching the whole school come together as one to support a team is an amazing feeling. I'm so proud to be a part of it," said Chas.

CHIEFS! Juniors Bethany Hagner, Haley Miller, Rachel Brock, Allie Bailey, Seniors Danielle Hochstetler, and Ashley Miller, and Sophomore Danielle Chantrenne support the Chiefs with their attire. "The glitter was not fun but it was great to be so supportive" said Haley.

Chief Mascot Senior Cory Skeels is ready to get the crowd going. "I love being able to show my Chief Pride," said Cory.

Lets go Robbie! Getting ready for the assembly is Senior Brock Carper who got to hold the sign behind Senior Robbie Gibson at a basketball game. "It's a great feeling to support one of my best friends" said Brock.

Do The Worm! Pumping up the crowd in the black leopard costume that he wore every game to show support is Freshmen Logan Shafer. "It's a great feeling being a part of the crowd," said Logan.

Go Chiefs! 8th Grader Skylar DeMeyer and 7th Grader Paige Brock support the boys by 58 ring their jerseys.

Rock On! Junior Morgan Bailey cheered on the varsity boys football team hoping for a great win. "I love going to football games and hanging out with friends cheering on the boys," said Morgan.

The crowd is pumped and rooting on the team for a win. The whole school and community come together to support our teams and enthusiastically cheer them on as they push themselves for a win.

DANCES

Everybody dance now! Once again, Student Council pulled it off with some amazing dances. This year they hosted the Homecoming dance, followed by the Halloween dance, then the Semi Formal dance, and lastly the Winterfest dance. At each dance, food was served with drinks and candy. Student Council always brings in a DJ so all of the students can jam to their favorite songs.

High School

Shining bright at the winter formal dance are Seniors Sadie Conley, Nikki Prouty and McKayla Thomas. After they got their pictures taken, they hit the dance floor and danced the night away!

Why so serious? Looking like the real deal, Junior Cahil Krajniak is scary good looking like "The Joker" from Batman. "It took a lot of time to get this master piece done, but I think I pulled it off pretty well!" said Cahil.

Taking it down a notch, Sophomore Breanica Robinson and Junior Julio Rubio slow dance together at the homecoming dance after the game.

Looking marvelous before the dance are Freshman Yeuin Spry and Melanie Lafertry. "Getting all dressed up makes me feel like a princess and I loved it!" said Melanie.

Grand March

Grand March is a tradition that begins every Prom. This year students walked the run way in the High School Gymnasium before parents, community members and friends. Senior Kristina Reingardt and Sophomore Breanna Griffiths believe going to prom with your best friends is the best way to have a fun time.

Senior couple Brandon Bryant and Chelsea Tovar flash a smile as they get ready to leave Grand March and head out to dinner before prom.

2013 Prom Committee included Juniors: Bethany Hagner, Matt Eger, Cahil Krajniak, Rachel Brock, Haley Miller, Chas Rathburn, Allie Bailey, Morgan Bailey, Ashley Stewart, Taylor Longacre and Megha Patel. During the many months of preparing and planning, the final day came when prom was here! The committee worked very hard to make this the best prom ever. From filling the party favor bags to hanging flowers from the ceiling, the hard work paid off!

Beautiful in blue is Junior Brooke Faulkner with her date. She sparkled and glistened walking down the Grand March runway.

Cheesel Juniors Mitch Black and Megan Keith strut their stuff as they walk down the stage. "Grand March was really fun and I'm glad I was able to go with Megan, she looked really beautiful," said Mitch Black.

Look at us! Branson Salyer, Brock Carper and Carson Krull are suited up and ready for a night at the prom.

Looking classy, Senior Alex Barton escorted Sophomore Katie Mahler to the Prom activities beginning with a walk down the runway at Grand March in the high school gym.

Going out with a bang are Seniors Eric Anderson and Nikki Prouty. "I really enjoyed going to prom with Eric," said Nikki.

Prom

Getting his groove on is Junior Mitchell Moore.

"I had a really fun time at prom!" said Senior Teri Weaver.

This year prom was held at the Old Bag Factory in Goshen. The Junior class planned and hosted the enchanted evening. The elegant decorations and timeless location really added to a wonderful evening of prom.

Enjoying their romantic evening is Junior couple Sammie Keegan and Tyler Kauffman.

Everyone rushed to the dance floor once the "Cha Cha Slide" started playing.

Junior Mallory Lambert smiles in her black and white polka-dot dress.

Casting her court vote is Senior Tabitha Miller. Seniors voted for Prom King and Queen as they arrived at prom. Juniors voted for Prince and Princess and parents voted for Duke and Duchess.

Junior, Brett Baker took a break from dancing to enjoy the food.

Despite having five seniors on the 2012 Varsity Volleyball team, it was a squad young in experience. Due to key graduation losses and limited roles of some new underclassmen, almost everyone was learning a new position at this level. So, we expected some growing pains in the beginning of the season. Thankfully, this team had great chemistry and a strong work ethic. After some struggles, the team started hitting their stride. At one point down the stretch, the team had won 19 out of 29 matches to go along with a championship at the Galesburg-Augusta quad. The Lady Chiefs also knocked off the number one seeded team to advance to the finals of the Buchanan tournament. Unfortunately, the team ended a half game under .500 with a 27-28-1 record after finishing the season by playing five of their last six matches against teams ranked in the state's top ten or honorable mention categories.

Coach Tony Hooley

Keeping the tradition alive, the Lady Chiefs do their ritual of WPHS! The girls love doing this right before the game to get not only themselves but the crowd pumped as well.

Jumping her highest, Senior Ashley Miller hits the ball down as hard as she can to get the kill during a league game. "Getting a kill is the best feeling ever!" Ashley Miller said.

Hustling for the ball, Junior Bethany Hagner dives as fast as she can to keep the ball alive against Mendon. Senior Nikki Prouty dodged out of her way to give her space.

Get Blocked! Freshman Kathrina Hagner and Senior Dani Hochstetler jump high to block a Centreville opponent from scoring on the Chiefs. The girls took home the W in four sets.

Down, ready and on her toes is Junior Rachel Brock. During the summer the girls played against three alumni teams to prepare themselves for their first tournament of the year.

Tip, Tip, Hooray! Freshman Sidney Harmon goes up to tip around two Centreville blockers. She had the best kill efficiency on the team this year.

Sophomore Dani Chantrenne looks over at coach for advice after the play was over. Coach Hooley always told the girls, remember to play with pride!

Success is measured in many ways; this season was not a success in the Win/Loss column, but we will continue to develop strong young men willing to work to improve themselves and the others around them. We will improve in the wins and losses. We will achieve success all around. Every year we will watch our players walk on the stage in May to receive their diplomas and be productive citizens in the community, learn from their mistakes, continue to improve their character, and pass on the best of who they are to the next generation.

This year brought a new coaching staff and a new offense for us to learn during our summer workouts.

With a strong returning sophomore class we went into the season with high expectations, however, with several early injuries to key players our younger players had to step quickly into positions they maybe didn't expect to be playing at the beginning of the year.

Watching this team come together as a family, supporting each other, never giving up and improving each week made it easy to coach these young men.

Thanks for a great year.

As a coach you hope for two things in a season -- to play hard for one another and to get better everyday. This JV team succeeded in both areas. The girls gave it their all every night and showed steady improvement as the season went on culminating in some very nice showings at late season invites. This was a collection of good athletes and great young ladies.

Ahhh, BOOM! Jumping over the net to slam the ball down on the Mendon Hornets is Freshman Riley Phelps. Covering her back and anticipating any deflection is Sophomore Kamryn Six.

What a save! Sophomores Kamryn Six and Tiffany Barnes worked together to save a ball and pass it up to their setter, Freshman Anna Miller.

What a set! Being quick on her feet and using all her strength, 8th Grader Grace Keyer sets the ball hard back over the net to save the point for the Chiefs.

BUMP, Set, Spike, Win. 8th Grader Madi Gremore kept her eyes on the ball and stayed focused as she made a great pass to her setter. Madi was a very positive player.

Yeah tip tip Hooray! Pumped up and excited is 8th Grader Skylar DeMeyer. She was a great team leader having a lot of experience after being a manger for the Varsity Team.

Although we did not win any meets, it was a year that shows promise for next year. The 8th Grade girls, Robyn and Delainy, where undaunted by any race -- be it a 10k, half marathon or a 6 hour adventure. The varsity girls did not run in many meets but were at practice and showed promise. Haley ran farther than she ever imagined, Allie was rehabbing her MCL, and Cyndi was a dual sport athlete. The varsity boys where consistent, Jaime being All-Conference (honorable mention) 2nd year, Cody, Lucas and Logan, all running and improving. Mitch was on his way to becoming an 18 to 19 minute runner until injury and illness cut the season short. The team became a family, had fun and learned from each other. Can't wait 'til next year!

"I don't play the field, I rule the sidelines."

The 2012 Sideline Football Cheer Team created and met a few goals throughout the season. They worked many concession stands to help raise money for new uniforms. The team also went on a field trip to Indiana Ultimate in August to practice jumps and tumbling and to learn stunting techniques from IU's finest athletes. Ninety-five percent of football cheer season is to work on skills and stunts for the following season. This team worked hard by conditioning and practicing to the best of their ability to meet goals and work toward perfection with skills and stunts.

"Competitive Cheerleaders do the equivalent of sprinting for two minutes straight, fly ten feet in the air, tumble and flip, and we do it all with a smile on our face. No other sport can claim that." This year was awesome! Not only did I get to spend so much time with these girls, but I also got to coach the best Competitive Cheer team in White Pigeon History!

Senior Message!

"For being my last year of cheering, I can honestly say I feel very accomplished. This team has a lot of talent and they certainly showed it on the mat. I am so proud of each of these girls and hope they continue learning and improving. I really enjoyed being a leader on this team along with Jordan. I wish the girls the best of luck in the future. Go Chiefs!"

- Nikki

"For this being my last year cheering, I can say it was the best year! I'm so proud of all the girls. They definitely brought it! We had a great season! I can't wait to watch the girls keep the reputation alive and go even further next year! Good Luck Ladies!"

- Jordan

Together we stand... This year the girls had one stunt group which worked perfectly in their favor. They stuck everything! The girls show off their T-stand with Senior Nikki Prouty flying. After her T-stand, her bases support her as she flies off and completes a suspended roll. This was an eye catcher that the judges loved!

Lady Chiefs! Sticking her lib perfectly like always is Freshman Chase Sweitzer. Her bases and back spot, Freshman Kaitlyn Colvin and Seniors Nikki Prouty and Jordan Ragsdale keep her as stable as possible at the Sturgis Competition where they took first place!

One Team, One Dream! Showing off their beautiful smiles and keeping tight in a shoulder sit is Senior Nikki Prouty and Sophomore Katie Mahler. Holding them are Freshman Kaitlyn Colvin and Chase Sweitzer. Almost every team this year added shoulder sits to their Round 3.

White Pigeon girls, were better than the rest! Yeah! In Round 3 at Championships where they placed third, the girls finished big with their favorite stunt, a straight up heel stretch! Not many teams were able to this stunt but our girls always executed this stunt.

There Is NO
Off Season!

The JV girls' basketball season cannot be defined simply by a 10-10 record, but rather should be defined by the heart and will that each player displayed throughout the season. Our Season, truthfully, should be described with hard work, way too much giggling, and several 10-second dance parties. We became more of a family than anything else in our 4 month season. As a coach, I truly look forward to watching these players excel both in the classroom and on the court in years to come, and I am proud to have been given the opportunity to have coached these girls.

~Seventh Grade~

Our team had a great season, capturing a championship with an unbeaten league season and finishing 8-1 overall. Our success was more a by-product of our togetherness, unselfishness, and willingness to get better than it was of athletic ability. Despite having some talent, this group understood that wins and losses were a measure of their commitment to academics and high character values on and off the court. They bought in to our team motto of Family, and have set a high standard for themselves as they move forward in their careers as Chiefs and beyond.

Personal Best! Senior Robbie Gibson winds up to throw the discus as far as he can at Regionals. Robbie threw a distance of 159 feet and 7 inches.

The 2013 White Pigeon Track teams made some nice strides this season. The Track team had a good number of athletes and a lot of underclassmen returning for next year. However, many seniors will be missed. Robbie Gibson finished his senior year with Regional titles in both the Shot-Put and Disc. He also finished 3rd in the Disc and 7th in the Shot-Put at the State Meet. Robbie leaves the program after three straight seasons of earning All-State honors in the Shot-Put and Disc. Juan Rubio and Cahil Krajniak also earned their way to the state track meet with a second place finishes at regionals, Juan for the Shot-Put and Cahil in the Long Jump, 110m H.F., and the 300m I.M. hurdles. The last four years the track team has won 2 regionals titles and had a 3rd and 5th place finish. The returning track team members are looking forward to the 2014 track season with the goal of adding another banner to the gym.

-Coach Shawn Strawser

Kicking it in for the last 200 meters of his open 1600 M run is Freshman Jarrett Miller. Jarrett was one of the few distant runners for the boys this year.

Great Job Dylan! Proud and happy with his time and place in the 400 M dash is Senior Dylan Stamp. "The 400 is a very difficult race to run," said Dylan.

Everyone Helps! Waiting to use the golf cart to take the starting blocks where ever they need to be are Senior Matt McNamara and Junior Connor Mroz.

Jumping into the sand pit in the long jump is 7th Grader Angela Gibson.

Leaping for first place is 8th Grader Nikol Black who is neck and neck with her opponent in the hurdles.

Friends on and off the track are 7th Graders Madi Belli, Sidney Mishler, Paige Brock, Casey Soto, and Angela Gibson.

Flying over the high jump bar is 8th Grader Madi Gremore.

Showing great endurance is 8th Grader Robyn Watson who is running the 2 mile. The 2 mile event is the first running event to start the track meet.

Our Middle School team was small again this year but we still challenged other schools in our league in the events that we could fill. Katie Bedard (8) had another great season, which ended at the SJV meet, winning the 200 m dash two years in a row. Paige Brock (7) was a great contributor. She performed very well in the shot put this year, always placing. Although our season was shortened by weather, I enjoyed working with this talented group of girls. Good luck in 2014!

Setting the bar high in high-jump is 8th Grader Kaleb Eastman.

Sprinting his way to the finish line is 7th Grader Cole Shafer.

The boy's middle school track and field season was a very successful one, as each member of the team showed improvement in their events. Most importantly, the boys demonstrated their commitment to "Family" in their unselfishness, togetherness, and desire to improve. This attitude goes above and beyond the simple sports they play together, and will serve them very well in all facets of life as they move forward in their careers as Chief student-athletes.

This year was one of learning for both the coaching staff and team. We have learned much concerning how to function as a team and what a thriving program must establish to be successful! We look forward to growing together again next year and taking steps towards a winning season! One step at a time this program will be successful! This year has been a mile marker, and the team did a wonderful job building the groundwork to move forward.

Batter up! Sophomore Alyvia Axe waits for the perfect pitch.

Swing, batter batter swing! Junior Haley Miller hits a double to bring in a run.

Safe at first! Senior Allie Lucas hits a fly ball to the outfield to get on base.

Second baseman Sophomore Destinee Duke concentrates on the play.

Senior Allie Lucas played center field and helped the team out by catching many fly balls.

Varsity Baseball

Front row: Shaun Harmon (11), David Minnich (DNF), Jordan Lucas (11), Matt Eger (11), and Eric Anderson (12). Back row: Assistant Coach Marshall Block, Dylan Stamp (12), Parker Krogh (12), Mitch Boatman (12) Dakota Stamp (12), Brock Carper (12), Drew Sellers (12), and Coach Cliff Eger. Not Pictured: David Miller.

Matt Eger received all league with a .425 batting average and Eric Anderson was honorable mention with a league record of 3-9 in a tough baseball league.

Getting ready for the pitch, Freshman David Miller sets up in his stance to fire away at the ball.

Ready for action, Senior Parker Krogh gets down and ready for any ball firing at his way.

With perfect posture, Senior Drew Sellers gets ready for fast pitches. "It's a scary job, but someone has to do it," said Drew.

Got it! Senior Brock Carper springs for the ball to get a great catch, throws to home, and gets an out.

Pitch perfect! Junior Matt Eger throws his fast pitch, right in the strike zone.

Safe! Senior Eric Anderson slides on to first base.

Getting advice from coach Eger. Senior Dakota Stamp gets some pointers before he gets up to bat.

Left handed batter Junior Shaun Harmon makes the choice to bunt. Luckily he makes it to base to help the team to get some points on the board.

JV Boys Baseball

Front Row: Jarrett Miller (9), Tyler Cruea (11), Ian Hayden (10), William Stamp (10), and Jacob Young (10). Back Row: David Miller (9), Mike Anderson (10), Brett Baker (11), Trampus Whitaker (10), Cole Sellers (10), Chase Personette (10) and Coach Glen McNamara.

Safe! Sophomore Chase Personette slides between the Cougar players and safely beats the ball to the base.

Go! Go! Go! Junior Tyler Cruea rounds third base as Coach McNamara urges him to run home.

We had another good year of JV Baseball in 2013. Of course, the weather was not very cooperative this year and we seemed to be practicing more than playing early in the season. We had a great mix of young men and when we did get to play, they played hard, had fun, and improved each week. Thanks for a great year.

-Coach McNamara

He windsup! He throws! Sophomore Mike Anderson throws a great curve ball.

The JV Golf Team had much success this year. Our numbers were up, allowing us to win the SJV. The golfers improved throughout the season and we had lots of fun learning the game of golf!

-Coach Sosinski

Where will it land! Waiting to see if his shot was good is Freshman Anthony Rin.

Completing his score card. Sophomore Ryan Kemp makes sure his score card is correct while he waits for his turn to putt.

JV Golf

Front Row: Alaina Maas (10), Avery Zammit (9), and Anthony Rin (9). Back Row: Coach Jay Sosinski, Curtis Salazar (10), Ryan Kemp (10), Michael Miller (12)

Getting in just the right position before addressing the ball is Sophomore Alaina Maas.

Up for the swing. Sophomore Curtis Salazar checks the distance to the green one more time before making his swing.

Going for a hole in one is Michael Miller, "What I'll miss most about golf is my golf caddy Coach Sosinski."

Check out that back swing! Freshmen Avery Zammit gets his swing just right.

Varsity Golf

Page by: Michael Christian Miller

The Varsity Golf team was very young this year, having 1 junior 4 sophomores and 2 freshmen. Among these players there was only 3 seasons of varsity experience. Sophomore Riley Olsen won the SJV League MVP title for the 2nd consecutive season and was also the St. Joseph County individual champion. Weather was an issue this spring, playing in snow on several occasions. The team finished third in the SJV this season. Next season will be much better as the players continue to improve. The key to getting better at anything is lots of meaningful practice.

-Coach Olsen

Out on Klinger Lake's front nine Golf Course waiting on his opponents to make their move is Freshman Jacob Black. "I was doing decently well until it began to rain," Black commented.

Playing the front nine on hole one's fairway is Sophomore Jack Tippman. Tippman shot a (59) that day, "I just know I made the green," said Jack Tippman.

Seniors Last Days

EXIT INTERVIEWS!

Does this look right? Cory Skeels and Matt Terry go through their books one last time before their interviews.

Presenting to his school mate, Brock Carper shows Mitch Boatman his book before his scheduled time to do the real thing.

Going through her book, Kym Keckler talks about her letters of recommendation to two local business personal.

Feeling confident, Brandon Bryant presents his portfolio to the business professionals.

SENIOR BREAKFAST!

Got it! Passing the time, waiting for the breakfast Cody McKnight and Matt Crowl balance spoons on their noses.

Time to open the letters! Jordan Ragsdale and McKayla Thomas read the letters they wrote to themselves in eighth grade.

As seniors get closer to graduation, many things take place. The first thing that takes place is Senior Exit Interviews. Students put together a portfolio and present them to two local business personal. The second thing that happens is Senior Breakfast. Parents from the senior class provide a homemade breakfast. While eating their final school breakfast, the staff handed out letters that the seniors wrote to themselves in eighth grade. After breakfast, they practiced walking for graduation. They walk through the steps with the music until it's perfect. When it was all done, the seniors took three celebration laps around the school in all different kinds of vehicles.

Digging in to the breakfast food prepared by senior parents. Danielle Hochstetler takes a homemade cinnamon roll to add to her plate.

I wrote that? Lakota Laferty and Mitch Boatman laughed, reminisced and shared the memories written in eighth grade.

DRIVE AROUND!

You can take a ride on my big green tractor! Driving her tractor with her friends is Kayla Lapham, McKayla Thomas and Cody McKnight in the traditional three times around the building.

Excited for their last day of school, this group of seniors got together and screamed with excitement to be on their way to graduation.

With his flag flying high, Matt McNamara, Richie DeBruine, Matt Crowl, and Danielle Hochstetler all ride together.

Zooming around in his golf cart Brandon Bryant, Chelsea Tovar, and David Minnich laugh and enjoy spending one more memory filled day with one another.
