Each year Sixth Graders go on an end of the year trip to Chicago. At the beginning of the school year the class gets together to talk about how many boxes of candy bars they need to sell to go on the trip. When they go they first visit the Field Museum. At the museum they get to see the large bones of Sue the T-Rex! Next they take a trip to the Willis Tower and they all get a chance to stand in the glass platform on the observation deck. Of course this trip isn’t complete without going to the Rainforest Cafe to enjoy a meal. After that they go to the Lincoln Park Zoo to look at the many different animals the zoo has to offer. To end the trip, they make their way to Medieval Times for dinner and a show.

Can you whistle? Volunteer participants in the saltine cracker challenge were asked to eat crackers and then be the first to whistle. The volunteers were Evan Atherton, Jordyn Ivastani, and Hannah Schmidtendorff. Taking first place was Jordyn.

I'm a celebrity! Craig picked one special student for The Interview. In The Interview Anthony Beardsley pretended it was ten years from now and he explained how he met his life goal of becoming a NBA player.

Who will be chosen to be the next celebrity on the Craig Tornquist show? Contestants in the running were Dakota Conley, Jordan Beardsley, Austin Raymond and Alex McIntyre, who were asked questions by Craig about their life and what they like to do.

Big Hair Queen

Don't they have beautiful hair? The Big Hair contestants were Kylea Shoemaker, Morgann Campbell, and Hayli Bender. These students volunteered to have their hair styled by another classmate who believed they could create the biggest hairdo for their friend.

Craig Tornquist is a comedian who entertains eighth grade students every year while encouraging them to develop and pursue their own dreams. At the same time, he challenges them to make wise decisions during their teen years that will directly impact their future opportunities. During the show, Craig Tornquist offered opportunities in the form of contests to the students that challenged them to become involved and be positive risk takers.

The Big Hair winner is Kylea Shoemaker. As part of the Big Hair crowning ceremony, Queen Kylea sat on her thrown draped in a fancy cape and golden crown while the crowd and Craig Tornquist sang the “Big Hairy Anthem.”

Dakota Conley was asked questions about what he wants to be doing when he becomes an adult. His answer: “I want to become a United States Marine.”
MS Rewards Day

Every year the middle school students celebrate the school year with a rewards day to reward them for passing their classes and for good behavior. This year the students in middle school had the privilege of having their very own assembly, going bowling at the Sturgis Bowling Alley, and going to see the new movie Mocking Jay: Part 1 of The Hunger Games Trilogy.

“We love Katniss!” exclaimed 7th Graders Claycee West and Blossom King as they waited outside the theatre before going to watch the newest movie of The Hunger Games, Mocking Jay.

6th Grader Madison Hicks prepares to bowl her next ball knowing that she will beat her classmate in this very competitive game if the ball rolls just so.

When will the hoop fall? 8th Grader Dakota Matson shows off her hula hoop skills during a very long hula hoop contest.

Technique! Technique! 6th Grader Trincetian Guehen grabbed a seat just as the music stopped in the game basketball musical chairs.

7th Grade Girls

On your mark! Get set! Go! Waiting for Mr. Shoppell to blow the whistle are the 8th Grade boys who are confident they are prepared for the obstacle race.

8th Grader Clark Miller takes a moment to photobomb his fellow classmate Kaleb Elkins as he goes to bowl.

“I was so close!” burst out 8th Grader Kylee Shoemaker as she finished 2nd in the last round of basketball musical chairs.

“It is all in the hips!” said 7th Grader Lincoln Strawser as he goes head-to-head against his fellow classmates to see who can hula hoop the longest.

6th Grade Girls
Since 2011, teachers have awarded students for their good behavior by giving out Chief Pride tickets. Winners are drawn each day and at the end of both semesters. At the end of first semester, the students gathered together to see who won the “big” prizes. After the prizes were awarded, the sixth though eleventh graders were treated with milk and cookies and allowed to hangout with one another. The Seniors left for Sturgis to eat at a Chinese buffet and go bowling. On the last full-day of school, students got together for more drawings and prizes for displaying Chief Pride during second semester.

Nothing says yummy like cookies! Sophomore Leah Silver enjoys her cookie while not having to worry about classes.

Everyone loves free t-shirts! Freshman Destiny Lukowski’s name was drawn during the assembly and she got to pick a shirt of her choice.

And we have a winner! Junior David Miller and Eighth Grader Elijah Tatum were lucky enough to get their names drawn to each win a 32 inch TV to take home and call their own.

So many cookies! Sophomores Grace Keyer and Hadley Carpenter try to decide what cookies to eat from the many different kinds to choose from.

When will the doors open? Both high school and middle school students excitedly line up at the gym doors before they open so they can get a good seat for the reward drawings.

Ending the year a winner! Junior Riley Phelps finished her last full day of school by getting her name drawn for a flat screen TV. Riley’s face showed surprise since she definitely wasn’t expecting her name to be the one picked.

Being good pays off! Winning the big prize for the middle school students was Sixth Grader Emma Stuck whose name was drawn from the Chief Pride tickets. Earning Chief Pride tickets by showing good behavior through-out the year really pays off.

Is it time to go yet?? The Senior class patiently waits for the time to leave and eat Chinese food before going bowling.

Our team is better than yours! Seniors Curtis Salazar, Kyle Kauffman, Lucas Hagen, Samuel Rodgers, and Anthony Mathiak show off their favorite bowling balls before playing.

Strike master! Senior Kayla Wense goes for another strike to beat her fellow classmates.

LEAVING RICHES! Ezekiel Macias (9), Rodelo Solis (9), Hunter Jourdan (9), Sydney Harmon (11), Riley Phelps (11), Makenna Bolinger (11), Nathaniel Reed (9), Robyn Watson (10), William Warner Felham (9), and Melanie Lafferty (11) each received a gift card for Walmart.

Chief Bash
This year we had six foreign exchange students attend our school. These students lived with their host family for two semesters. Leaving home for a whole school year is tough and challenging, but technology makes it easier to be away from home, as the exchange students can at least facetime their parents, siblings and friends, and talk to them on their cell phones. Our exchange students enjoyed their time here playing sports and visiting other parts of the country. They attended prom and other dances like the Semi-Formal. The exchange students not only got to experience life outside their home county but bonded with their host families, their American classmates and with each other. They have created memories that will last a lifetime and formed tight friendships that will never be broken.

To start off their year right, the Freshman class has the wonderful opportunity of attending a full school day at Camp Eberhart. They get led through several team building and leadership skill activities throughout the day. Not only are they learning to be leaders, but they also get the chance to come together as a whole.

Wuddup?! Brandon Grafe showed his excitement when he made it to the end of the high rope.

Row! Noah Krull uses his muscles as he glides his canoe across the lake ahead of this classmates.

Don't look down! Zachariah Hendricks focuses on the high ropes as he walks his way across.

Where's my next rock? Casey Soto climbed her way straight to the top of the rock wall.

Homecoming Dress Up/Lunch

Student Council members start meeting at the beginning of the school year to discuss ideas and begin planning events that will help all students get excited about participating in homecoming festivities.

20's
You would think Seniors Cyndi Flood, Dani Chantreene, Sam Rodgerer, Ryan Kemp, Alaina Maas, and Lexi Walters were really from the 20's!

Juniors Anthony Rin, Riley Phelps, Logan Shafer, and Grace Baker rocking the rolling 20's fashion.

80's
Senior Trampus Whitaker is really getting into the 80's digs.

Junior Jamie Silk, Sophomore Brooke Boocher, Genesis Hufford and members of the band are looking bangin' in their rad 80's clothes during Tuesdays dressup day competition.

50's
Seniors Dylan Hochstetler, Mike Cartwright, Cole Sallier and Juniors Jared Mroz, Kody Hull and Senior Lucas Hagen are some cool cats during 50's day.

60's
Top: The band is all decked out in their rad 60's style.

To the left: Seniors Riley Olsen and Cyndi Flood lead their class in the dress up competition.

Red & Black
Go red! Go Black! Sophomores Kalea Eastman and Gavin Kopf show their school spirit by wearing their football jerseys.

5th Graders Zoe Fisher, Jenise Koo, Maja Rin, Zinnia Hartwick, and Noah Carlisle are having a blast showing off their red and black attire.

50's
Wow! Seniors Chris Weaver, Laura Wright, William Stamp, Mike Anderson, Cody Hagen, and Lucas Hagen are looking swell in their 50's style threads.

60's
Junior Kaitlyn Colvin holds up her empty baby bottle while Senior Destinee Duke, Sophomore Ode Rathbourn, and Freshman Kayley Six work on finishing theirs.

6th Graders Zoe Fisher, Jenise Koo, Maja Rin, Zinnia Hartwick, and Noah Carlisle are having a blast showing off their red and black attire.

Who will win? Sophomore Hunter Rummel arm wrestles Junior Dylan Sandy to see who has the best technique and overall arm strength during Monday's lunch time activity.

Senior Lexi Walters bursts with excitement as she wins the " shave a balloon" lunch activity on Tuesday. She said "I was so determined to beat everyone that it just got to me."
PowderPuff Football

The Juniors and Seniors continue the tradition of the annual PowderPuff football game. Due to weather conditions, this game took place two weeks after homecoming week; but this delay did not keep the girls, coaches, cheerleaders, and the high school students from enjoying this competitive event. The girls ended the game in a 6-6 tie.

Seniors

Juniors

Many events happen during Homecoming. Some of the activities are dress-up days, lunch time competitions, Friday's Assembly, and the Parade. This Homecoming, students in Ninth through Twelfth grade created floats based on the Homecoming theme -- Decades! Float building will be only one of the memories that will never be forgotten.

Parade

No one is as pumped for the parade as Sophomores Chloe Cortwell and Hailey Carper! Hailey said, "We brought the 80's back to White Pigeon that day."

Peace out! Senior Emilee Lane goes with the flow during the parade while in the back of Mr. Gropp's truck.

Nothing is better than riding on top of the fire truck during the parade. Enjoying the view is Sophomore Madi Gremsore and Freshmen Sydney Mishler and Kayley Six.

Assembly

Looking fabulous! A boy and a girl from each class got a make-over from a classmate of the opposite gender who sat behind them while trying to perfect their facial makeup.

PULL! The Senior boy's Ryan Kemp, Donovan Gremore, Brandon Wright, and a few others show their strength during tug-of-war.

One at a time! Eighth Grader Anthony Beardsley tries to be the fastest to pull all the tassels out of the box.

Around the bat she goes! Seventh Grader Blossom King goes for a swirl around the bat.

Floats

The Rolling 20's was the theme for the Freshman float. Even with the wind trying to tear it apart, the float was still a beautiful success.

Everyone loves the 80's! The Sophomore class had an awesome time creating this colorful, funky float trying to bring back the 80's.

The Class of 2016's float was all about the flaming 50's. Chase Sweitzer said, "Being on the float was fun, until I almost fell off!"

Groovy Seniors! Seniors Ryan Kemp, Makena Ashbrook, Alaina Maas, Logan McDonald Lexi Walters, Ian Hayden, and Emilee Lane go all out on the Senior's sixties hippy float.

Yummy! Trying to feed each other ice cream cones the fastest while being blindfolded are Seniors Donovan Gremore and Dani Chantrenne.
Homecoming is one of the events that we all look forward to. Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors each choose a boy and a girl to represent their class. However, the Senior class votes for five boys and five girls who are represented in couples to run for King and Queen individually. The Friday of the Homecoming game, every class watches a video of the King and Queen candidates being interviewed to further decide who they want to choose. They then vote for their favorite and the King and Queen are announced at the game during halftime. This year we congratulate Samuel Rodeghier and Danielle Chantrenne for being voted as our King and Queen. Dani was happy to tell us, “I was very surprised and very honored to be picked by the student body to be their Queen. It definitely started my year off perfect. All of Homecoming was a blast.”

Chief Fans!

Did you see that? Junior Chase Sweitzer and Seniors Breama Robinson and Courtney Brown look over at the end zone to see if the Chiefs will get the touchdown.

"Country Roads, Take Me Home." Members of the sophomore class pull out their phones to shine their lights and sway as they sing a long to this song at the homecoming assembly.

ACE! Senior Trampus Whitaker claps his hands together to cheer on the volleyball players.

From sports events to assemblies, Chief fans stick together throughout the seasons. Wearing red to black, they always show their school spirit. Chanting and cheering, the fans get creative in showing their pride for the Chiefs. Some fans bring noise makers, others make signs, while some paint their faces and others dress up! The louder the fans cheer, the better the teams play.

Chief Pride! Junior Logan Shafer dressed up as the "Chief" at the football game to show his school spirit and Chief Pride.

Please keep your arms and legs in the cart at all times and enjoy the ride! Senior Jack Tippman leads the student section in the roller coaster.

Next on ESPN... Seniors Christian Ryall-Shoup, Andrew Mann, and Jack Tippman give a play by play on how the girls basketball game is going.

GO CHIEFS!
Staying focused. Junior Austin Walters, Senior Kyle Poley, and Sophomore Emily Mumaw concentrate to stay on beat while performing at the homecoming assembly.

Drum line is a group that could be considered the backbone of the band. It’s a group in which you have to be dedicated and focused. “It’s harder than people think, because you have to figure out what to play and how fast or slow you want to play a song,” said Senior Kyle Poley.

Sophomore Alison Long, Senior Brianna Lapham, Freshmen Sarah Evilsizer and Lizzy Anderson perform alongside the band during the Marching Band Festival.

Freshman Lizzy Anderson is all smiles as she twirls to the conductors beat during a football half-time performance.

What is guard? Color guard is a one of a kind sport, it is also part of the band. It takes a lot of time and dedication in order for the members to stay in sync. They preform during half-time at football games to the beat of the band. This year’s team consisted of Senior Brianna Lapham, Sophomore Alison Long, Freshman Lizzy Anderson, and Freshman Sarah Evilsizer. “Color guard takes a lot of patience and skill. It’s also really fun, and I’ll definitely miss it,” said Senior Brianna Lapham.

Winterfest Dress Up

Are you awake yet? Jordan Olsen (10), Zane Shoppell (10), Skyler DeMeyer (10), Riley Olsen (12), Page Ayers (10), Gavin Kopf (10), Christian Ryall-Shoup (12), Chad Barton (12), Hunter Rummier (10), and Mikel Watkins (10) dress up for Mondays Pajama day.

“I’m an American.” Seniors Michael Anderson, Chris Weaver, Donavon Gremore, Cody Hagen, William Stamp, Andrew Mann, and Hannah Carr show their American Pride on Tuesdays America Day.

Freshmen Casey Soto, Paige Brock, Sidney Mishler, Madison Belli, and Elizabeth Anderson dress up for Wednesdays Identical Day.

“What were you thinking!” Juniors Riley Phelps, Grace Baker, Logan Shafer, Kelsey Lehman, and Chase Sweitzer pose for Thursdays Fashion Disaster Day.

Winterfest week is a week filled with dress up days, activities, an assembly, and to finish it all off a home basketball game. Monday was Pajama Day, Tuesday was America Day, Wednesday was Identical Day, Thursday was Fashion Disaster Day, and to end the week, Friday was Red and Black Day.

Lunch Time

Senior Donavon Gremore and Sophomore Gavin Kopf show a gesture of good luck before starting the lunch activity on Monday.

Eating crackers as fast as they can during the activity on Monday are Sophomore Giana Freedline and Freshman Elizabeth Anderson.

Juniors Kaitlyn Colvin and Brianna Dressler wrap David Miller like a mummy for the lunch time Mummy Wrap challenge.

“What is this really how you would dig for worms?” Senior Hailey Owens, Junior Melanie Lalerty, and Sophomore Skyler DeMeyer compete to see who will find the worms the fastest.

Put the bow on the mummy! Seniors Courtney Brown and Delaney Byler try to give their mummy, Andrew Mann, some fashion sense.
Senior Haley Owens earned first place in an activity during the lunch time activities so her classmates nominated her to find the gummy worms in the whip cream during the assembly.

Chubby Bunny! Freshman Kiley Lowery volunteered for the Chubby Bunny activity and tried to be the participant who could talk the best with a mouth full of marshmallows.

Don't drop that hula hoop! Freshman Jillian Hagen is in competition with the other classes to try and hula hoop the best and longest.

Do students in the seventh grade wear tennis shoes more than students in other grades? Seventh Graders Claycee West, Reinya Field, Faith Goins and Delilah Weaver hope their class wins this Scavenger Hunt event.

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! Junior Dylan Sandy hurries to get his firefighter gear on and make a free throw so he can help his class earn points.

Where is my Winterfest Court date? Blindfolded Senior Alaina Maas struggled to find her date, Donovan Gremore, because Senior Riley Olsen kept yelling instructions to distract her.

Musical chairs is a real struggle when you try to dribble a basketball at the same time. Freshman Kamren Garten dribbles his way into the top four during this activity.

Run Leah Run! Sophomore Leah Silver struggles to run in her oversized firefighter pants as she races Freshman Angela Gibson to the next piece of firefighter clothing.

There goes the beard! The Freshman class won the Spirit Chain contest with a chain that reached from the front door to Mr. Morsaw's room. Freshman class President Sarah Eylkiztor was nominated to be the barber and shave off his beard.

Hold on! Trying to get the best time in the obstacle course, while pulling classmate Logan Shafer through the course on a towel, are Juniors Riley Phelps and Sydney Harmon.

Can you see me now? Senior Destinee Duke had her face covered in shaving cream and cheetos threw at her face by Senior Ryan Kemp for one of the activities during the Winterfest Assembly.
Winterfest Court 2015

Winterfest Court members are chosen by participants from each club. Court members are expected to participate in the weeks festivities and write an essay about how they make a difference in today's society. Their essays are reviewed by a panel of judges who decide King and Queen. The King and Queen are then announced on Friday before the Varsity Boys Basketball game.

The Junior and Senior boys, along with their girl coaches, go head-to-head in a twenty-five point, best two-out-of-three volleyball game. The first team to get to twenty-five points, twice, wins. This year the Junior boys won the first set. Nevertheless, the Senior boys came back on top and won the last two sets.

Sophomore Skylan DeMeyer gives blocking tips to Senior Trampus Whitaker.
Grand March is the first event of every Prom. This unique event brings the community into the prom festivities. Prom participants strut their stuff in prom regalia in front of parents, grandparents, families, friends and community members who gather to send the students off to prom in high fashion.
Prom

This year's Prom, Light Up the Night, took place at the Klinger Lake Country Club in Sturgis. It was an evening full of dancing, pictures and fun with friends. 128 students attended the festivities and everyone had a spectacular time. It was a night to remember!

After the coronation, Juniors Princess Cheyenne Ysler and Prince Anthony Rin are happy with the results.

Excited to vote. Juniors Tayler Spear and Anna Miller fill out their paper ballots.

Would you like to dance or just talk? Seniors Rogelio Segundo and Alexis Walters appreciate each other's company.

Relaxing at the table. Juniors Chance Simons and Jared Mroz have a little talk while watching the event.

Sophomores Robyn Watson and Grace Keyer take care of the check-off list at the beginning of the party.

The hair always needs to be perfect! That's why Sophomores Izabella Gabrieli and Robyn Watson fixed Sophomore Giana Freedline's hair.

Just dance! Seniors Breanna Griffis and Alyvia Axe bust some moves on the dance floor.

Juniors Grace Baker, Makenna Bolinger, Brianna Dressler, and Kaitlyn Calvin rock the party.

Post Prom is the event that keeps the fun going all the way until the morning after Prom. The buses leave the school at midnight and return at 6 a.m. This year Post Prom was held at Airway Lanes in Kalamazoo. This fun center had so many different and exciting things to do including: bowling, laser tag, go-carts, and high ropes. There was also an arcade with many different and interactive games to play. Student names were also put in a raffle for the chance to go into a wind tunnel and win money.

Juniors Whitney Fiels and Alea Holliday spend their time at Post Prom facing off in an epic battle of bumper cars.

We love mini Putt Putt golf! Sophomore Nikol Black and Seniors Kamryn Six, Christian Ryall Shoup, Jack Tippman, Andrew Mann, and Chris Weaver all compete in a very cold and competitive game of Putt Putt golf under the stars at Post Prom.

Let's play ski ball! Senior Casey Huguley and Freshman Dakota Ryall compete in a very intense game of ski ball.

We're under attack! Senior Alaina Maas strategically crawls around collecting as much ammo as she can while trying to not get hit.
I bowl granny style! Junior Brianna Dressler shows perfect form and technique of the granny bowl while going for the strike.

Watch your step! Junior Cheyenne Yoder carefully climbs her way through the many obstacles on the high ropes course.

Playing at an arcade game are Seniors Rogelio Segundo and Lexi Walters. "I had a lot of fun at Post Prom! Especially when I beat Ro at this football game!" said Lexi.

Middle School

Limbo! Sixth Grader Kaylea Cradolph gets low as she plays one of the many games at the Halloween dance.

Home Of The Chiefs

Cops and robbers? Looks like this police officer is off duty! Senior Donavon Greemore helps junior Kathrina Hagner sneak some candy away from the food table during the Halloween dance.

Put your hands in the air! Eighth Grader Morgann Campbell lets loose as she dances to the music.

6th, 7th, and 8th Grade students get to attend their first semi-formal dance in the spring sponsored by the Sophomore class.

Let’s dance! Seniors Destinee Duke, Haley Owens, and Dani Chantrenne liven up the party at the Snowball dance. “I can’t even begin to describe how much fun I had dancing that night!” said Dani.

Egg-spert Senior Cole Sellers knows that he has all of his coordinates down for his egg to drop in Mr. Morris's Physics class.

"You have to find your resource!" Mr. Twicell tells this year's biology class during the annual deer game.

Carefully making sure he doesn't spill anything is Senior Cody Hagen as he prepares for his flame test lab in Chemistry.

Teamwork, teamwork, teamwork! Freshmen Nikolos Andaverda and Bruno Martinez work together to make their maglev vehicle perfect.

Testing to see if his Mag-Lev vehicle works is Freshman Eckiel Macias who hopes to win his upcoming race.

"Electrons are negative Nancy's!" Ms. Middleton tells her chemistry class as they learn the importance of atoms.

In middle school each grade level learns different types of science. The 6th Graders studied Meteorology and Rock Science, 7th Graders learned about Integrated Science, and 8th Graders studied Earth Science.

High School

In high school there are many science options. The Freshman take Integrated Science, the Sophomore class takes Biology, and the Juniors and Seniors choose Chemistry and/or Physics.

7th Grader Claycee West studies the difference between bacteria and fungi in her integrated science class.

7th Grader Anastasia Roberts looks up how mushrooms affect the environment.

7th Grader Stone Kemp focuses on his homework preparing for his big test the next day.
Mr. Morsaw's student, Junior Austin Walters, looked at the driving force and momentum of a marshmallow during this class experiment.

I hope this is the right answer! Junior Jenny Valdez uses her calculator to check to see if she has completed her test questions correctly.

Taxes, taxes, and more taxes! During Ms. Ruder's Consumers Math class, Senior Jack Tippman determines how much he will have to pay in taxes when he purchases a new car.

Sophomore Darcie Johnson works on her math homework by following all the steps Mr. Vander Schaaf gave to the class.

Math

Middle School
In middle school the 6th graders take Basic Math, and the 7th and 8th graders take Connected Math Project or CMP.

High School
In high school the math classes students can take are Algebra 1 for Freshmen, Geometry for Sophomores, Algebra 2 for Juniors, and Consumers Math for Seniors. You can also take FST your Junior or Senior year.

What will I ever use Geometry for? Freshman Kory Haas shows his geometrical decoration that he made for his Geometry class Christmas assignment.

Seniors Lexi Walters and Kamyn Six rush to finish their assignment so they know how much money they have in their budget and can begin planning for the upcoming project in Ms. Ruder's Consumers Math class.

What a cute little gingerbread house! In Ms. Ruder's Geometry class, Sophomore Leah Stiver used her knowledge of Geometrical shapes to complete her ornament assignment.

Concentrating hard, 6th Grader Elizabeth Boyd uses the information that was just presented in class to figure out the answers to her daily class work.

Did I write down all the steps? 8th Grader Carlos Castro checks the overhead during Mrs. Foley's Connected Math Project class to see if he has written down all the steps to complete the problem correctly.

What was that answer? 7th Grader Melissa Hayden listened to her fellow classmates as they gave the answers to the homework.
The Social Studies curriculum is concerned with the study of social relationships and the functioning of society and is made up of Economics, Government, Geography and History courses. In Middle School you learn about Western Hemisphere in Sixth Grade, Eastern Hemisphere in Seventh Grade, and U.S. History in Eighth Grade. In High School you learn about World History, U.S. History, Economics and Government. The main focus in World History is how the world was shaped by what happened in the past. U.S. History is about how the U.S. became the United States and what sacrifices people had to make to give us freedom. Economics studies the process or system by which goods and services are produced, sold, and bought and Civics studies the rights and duties of citizens and of how government works.

Elijah Carr, Sydney Mishler, Cassie Soto and Rheanna Ragsdale, all freshmen, work hard and are on time to present their project on Isaac Newton for Mr. Sosinski’s World History class.

Seventh Grader Jordin Spooner made a mask for Mrs. Beegle’s Eastern Hemisphere class for their project on West African art and culture.

Eighth Grader Evan Atherton looks for his worksheets to turn in during his 4th hour Social Studies class with Mrs. Beegle.

Candice Sweitzer, Jayden Savage, Zach Brown and all Sophomores gave a presentation about Montesquieu which is a French Political Philosophie.

Wow! That’s beautiful! Denise Rubio Junior works on her bracelet for Economics as a project to learn how to make money, to work efficiently and make stuff look nice.

Sixth Graders Zinnia Hartwick, Estefania Castro and Emma Stuck show off their Terracota warriors from the Qin Shi Huang Dynasty.

Fight, fight, fight! Sixth Graders Emma Stuck and Mya Rin play the hero twins in an epic battle to win the Aztec Ball Game.

Working hard on their bracelets to have to most done in an efficient, timely manner and have them look nice are Juniors Logan Shaffer, Rachel Kemp, David Miller and Anna Miller.

Foreign Exchange Student Eva Burger made a poster on the Cologne Cathedral for Mr. Gropp’s U.S History class. “I had a lot of fun working on this project and I hope to get a good grade on it” said Eva.

Taking a step back in time, Sophomore Zane Shoppell teaches middle schoolers what is was like to live during the Civil war and what they would have slept in.

Showing off their masks are Seventh Graders Christopher Bontrager, Mariah Howe, Jordin Spooner, Joanna Jones, and Jackson Alwine.

English

English is a class where you can express your creativity and learn about great historic writers and their works. A new class offered this year was Sports and Literature where you learned about the history of sports and read books about sports.

"My story is called The Baby Owl." 8th Grader Hannah Schmidtendorf presents the story she wrote to her class. Students had to create a book using their creativity to write and illustrate it.

Juniors Dylan Sandy and David Miller and Seniors Dylan Hochstetler and Chris Weaver had the privilege of meeting with a White Pigeon graduate and former professional boxer, Jeff Bumpas, who came into the Sports and Literature class to talk about the book he wrote, Becoming Taz.

Spanish is taught by Mrs. Twitchell. Spanish is a class where you learn about Spanish culture and of course how to speak Spanish. This year the class got to perform skits in front of each other and participated in many other cultural activities.

"Mi llamo es Noah!" Freshman Noah Krull introduces himself in front of the class. Students had to use their new language skills to introduce themselves and tell about their hobbies and interests.

"Is my wig on straight?" Freshman Destiny Lukowski asks Sophomore Kaleb Eastman his opinion about her wig as the two prepare to perform a skit about a family's adventure in the Grand Canyon.

"How do you say that?" Freshmen Hunter Jourdan and Cole Shlafer ask for help on how to roll their "R's" so they can correctly pronounce their lines.
Nutrition

Who doesn’t love food? Mrs. Jarrad teaches her students not only basic nutrition about what is needed for your body and what’s not good at all for you, but she also assigns the students food labs to give them a learning experience on routines in the kitchen when preparing food. They prepare food such as monkey bread, dirt pudding, pancakes, and one of the students favorites to make, grilled peanut butter and jelly. When you are in the lab you are grouped with 4-5 people and you work together to plan and prepare the meal correctly within that class hour. Every year before the whole school gets out for Winter Break everyone in the class must create a gingerbread house. You create a gingerbread house with at least one other person. The three team’s with the best gingerbread houses are announced at an assembly before Christmas break.

Every measurement counts! Senior Haley Owens tries her best to make sure that all of the measurements are correct for her group’s recipe.

Foreign Exchange Student Luiza Lopes had the opportunity to make a gingerbread house with the preschoolers.

Senior Kyle Kauffman takes his time to make sure the batter has the perfect combination of ingredients and is evenly stirred.

Look who’s “monkeying around”! Getting ready to bake some delicious monkey bread is Senior Trampus Whitaker.

One cupcake at a time. Sophomore Stephanie Roose carefully gives each cupcake wrapper the perfect amount of batter for this delicious treat.

Gingerbread House Winners

1st

First place winners for the Gingerbread House contest were Juniors Sydney Harmon and Cheyenne Yoder.

2nd

Second place award for their Gingerbread House went to Sophomores Grace Keyer and Madison Gremore.

3rd

Receiving the Third place award for their Gingerbread House were Seniors Destinee Duke, Courtney Brown, and Dani Chantrene.

Career Technical Education (CTE)

Medical Occupations

Junior Abigail Kauflman makes sure that all of Junior Carly Corder’s vital signs are okay as she practices one of the demos she’ll have to present as part of her class.

Building Trades

As part of his Building Trades class Junior Jake Black learns how to operate a crane from one of his instructors.

Computer Aid Design (CAD)

Showing off his Mites project from his CAD class is Senior Branden Wright who was in charge of designing the outside details of the house.

Agriscience and Natural Resources

Senior Mitch Miller checks the quality of this year’s harvest. "This class was pretty easy, since most of what we were taught were things I already knew from working on my family's farm," said Senior Mitch Miller.

Computer Information and Technologies

Blue goes to blue? Senior Curtis Salazar works on computer hardware and programming during class. He was also taught how to troubleshoot and work with programs like JAVA and C++.

Automotives Technologies

Junior Damian Esarey learns to solder wires in order to make an electrical connection in the Automotives Technologies class at Glen Oaks.

Graphic Design

I can design that! Junior Shayla Hendrickes learned how to create 3-D Digital Illustrations while attending Graphic Design course during CTE.

CTE is a program in which students from around the county have the opportunity to explore one of eight programs where they gain a lot of insight into a career field. Taking these classes helps student decide if the program they are in is something that they would like to choose as their future career. Classes included in the CTE program include:

- Medical Occupations teaches a student all the basic skills that would be necessary in the medical field.
- Automotives Technologies covers the four major areas of automotive services, through this program students have the opportunity to become state certified.
- Graphic Design teaches students how to put pictures and words together into a creative design, they also learn how to create 3-D illustrations.
- Agriculture and Natural Resources offers 8 different courses within the class that will teach you scientific topics through hands-on activities.
- Computer Aid Design is a program that is directed for students who are interested in becoming drafters or engineers, students will learn drafting skills using Auto CAD to solve detailed engineering drawings.
- Building Trades is a program that offers the full experience of working on a construction site and it also gives students the opportunity to learn various methods and techniques, the students build a new residence from the foundation to the roof.
- Computer Information and Technologies teaches students how to install many programs and operating systems. As part of this class students get the opportunity to participate in Business Professionals of America which is a National Student Organization.
Physical Education

Physical Education is a game class used to show students how they can stay fit and still have fun by playing games that are physically demanding. Mr. Shoppell teaches high school P.E. classes, Mr. Strawser teaches 6th and 8th Grade P.E. classes, and Mr. Twichell teaches High School Weight Training and 7th Grade P.E.

High School

1, 2, 3 release! Seniors Danielle Chantrenne, Mike Crowl, Donavan Gre, more, Mitchell Miller, and Andrew Mann wait for the perfect time to release their arrows.

Middle School

6th Grade

1, 2, 3 shoot!! 6th Graders Mark Caraway, Reece Wesdek, and Hayden Steib work on their basketball skills during P.E. class.

Getting a little practice in with the boys. 6th Grader Hanna Foley played football in Gym class.

6th Grade

Middle School

High School

The Band classes are not only academic classes but also extracurricular activities. Mrs. Benoit is the Band director for all three bands. The High School Band performs for special school events and all home football games and marches with the Middle School Band in the Holland Tulip Festival’s Volksparade. Also Middle School and High School Band perform at the Graduation Ceremony and the Memorial Day Service. All three bands play several concerts from October to May.

Senior Shelby Robinson gets her instrument and music organized for the Halloween performance.

Feel the music! 7th Grader Sarah Young and 8th Grader Alaza Elkins play their flutes and tap their feet to the beat of the music.

Before leaving for their performance, Seniors Kyle Poley and Haley Owens proudly show off the new band uniforms.

6th Graders Noah Lane, Nicholas Weaver, Thomas Sears and Noah Carlisle wait for the signal to open the concert.

First Row: Emily Mumaw (10), Kyle Poley (12), Leah Stiver (10), Zane Shoppell (10), and Teri Shook (10). Second Row: Mrs. Benoit, Jamie Silk (11), Jair Luna (10), and Shelby Robinson (12). Third Row: Ezekiel Macias (9), Daniel Graber (9), Genesis Hufford (10), and Ezekiel Young (10). Fourth Row: Rhianna Raigade (9), Alex Holliday (11), and Teara Webb (9). Fifth Row: Brooke Boccher (10), Haley Owens (12), Casey Seto (9), and Whitney Fleis (11). Sixth Row: Brianna Lapham (12), Elizabeth Anderson (9), and Alison Long (10).
Instrumental Keyboarding

Rocking the keys, Senior Cynthia Flood knows how to play!

Senior Samuel Rodeghier is in his element playing the piano.

Instrumental Keyboarding is taught by Mrs. Benoit. All high school students can take this course. It does not matter if they have played piano before or are just getting started. Everyone who is interested in learning how to play the piano is welcome.

Impressive! Mrs. Benoit checks the skills of Sophomore Shayna Schutz.

Music Technology

A new class taught by Mrs. Benoit is Music Technology. Everyone in high school can take it. It is all about learning different music-related tasks on the computer. For example, they did a commercial, and created their own songs on soundation.com.

And... action! Seniors Christian Ryall-Shoup and Kamryn Six record their Audio Book Projects.

Correcting the last little details to their songs are Seniors Kasandra Herscherberger and Nicole Wright who are 100% focused.

Drop the beat! Junior Kathrina Hagner and her classmates Riley Phelps and Sydney Harmon make great music!

History of Rock & Roll

Mrs. Benoit also teaches History of Rock & Roll, which is a second-semester high school class. Here you learn everything about the history of modern music genres. You talk about all the famous artists from Johnny Cash to The Beatles to Taylor Swift.

With their finished tie dye T-shirts, Senior Michael Galvan, Juniors Jared Mroz and Chase Sweitzer and Sophomore Eva Berger have fun in the hallway.

It is KISS time! Juniors Chase Sweitzer and Jarred Mroz painted their faces in KISS style to get out of a test.

Tie dying! Senior Michael Galvan and Juniors Jared Mroz, Chase Sweitzer and Sydney Harmon worked hard to create the perfect shirt.

After finishing their assignment Senior Laura Wright and Junior Chase Sweitzer talked about their favorite music.
Senior Emilee Lane helps Senior Trampus Whitaker apply some of the more advanced features of the spreadsheet assignment.

8th Grader Kaylyn Bauder proofreads her assignment to make sure she has not forgotten anything.

“All About Me” 8th Grader Carlos Castro presents his Power Point explaining his life, family, and friends.

High school computers is where students learn Advanced Microsoft Office computer applications, and apply these skills as they prepare for a future full of technology.

Middle school computers is where students learn how to run basic programs needed for high school, and then practice each application to perfect their skills.

In computers, 7th and 8th Graders learn how to present, publish, and create a power point. They also touch on Microsoft Word, Excel and Google Docs.

Junior Cody McDonald uses advanced settings in Microsoft Word to design a very creative poster.

8th Grader, Kyle Black calculates how many red Skittles he had versus yellow as he gathers data for his Excel project.

8th Grader Dawson Watson practices using the Smart Board as he presents his Power Point presentation.

Psychology is a class focusing on the brain and how it works, seeing how the brain functions. Mr. Gropp touches aspects of how psychological issues can form and how to deal with them.

Sociology focuses on issues in today's society, including politics, drugs, crimes, and culture. Mr. Gropp assigns students different experiments to see how society responds in situations.

Mr. Gropp explained how devastating events can effect someone mentally.

Senior Kyle Poley interviews other people about how they would react in certain stressful situations.

Sophomore Izabella Gabrielli, and Seniors Kamryn Six and Dylan Hochstetler complete their research on the brain.

Senior Nikki Wright makes sure her understanding of the brain and nerves system is right.

Senior Anna Rubio looks over her project about how people in the public respond to different events.

Seniors Nancy Carmona, Cyndi Flood, and Anna Rubio gather research for their project.

Seniors Chad Barton and Sami Rodegheier work to finish their project.
Freshman Focus

Freshmen Focus is a class where Mrs. Jarrad teaches the Freshmen about college, fields of work and study, and helps them gather knowledge about healthy life habits. The Freshmen also become CPR certified during the year and have many guest speakers such as Gryphon Place, an organization that comes in to talk to students about the prevention of suicide and antiviolence. They are also taught about the negatives of drug and alcohol abuse.

Middle School Health

The Middle School Health class, taught by Mr. Shoppell, is where the 7th grade students learn about how the human body works. They do projects, demonstrations, and research on healthy choices and living.

269-381 HELP, Amy from Gryphon Place, a suicide prevention organization, comes in to teach the freshmen that suicide is not the answer.

Acting out a skit about healthy life choices are 7th Graders Ryleigh Bigelow, Kaitlynn Wolfe, and Karey Strawser.

7th Graders Gustavo Castro, Lincoln Strawser, Boe Eckman, and Kobie DeBruijne practice good choices by saying no to drugs.

Mr. Shoppell explained the STOP Method and HELP Method, both practices show students how to make smart choices and say no to drugs and alcohol.

Focusing on health, Freshmen Tony Solis and Riley Lowery research the effects of bulimia.

Zane Andrews explains to Jacob Mullenix that he should never go out drinking and driving and the "STOP Method".
"Photography can only represent the present. Once photographed, we become part of the past." ~Berenice Abbott.

Yearbook, along with mimicking the characteristics of a business, involving selling advertisements in order to make our yearbooks cheaper, is an experience everybody should have. The pictures we take capture our lives and what we do everyday in and sometimes out of school. Our team interviews students and adults, writes captions for every picture, and create pages from scratch working together to perfectly form our amazing yearbooks.

High School Youth in Government

The White Pigeon Youth in Government students attended a conference sponsored by Y. M. C.A. that allows students to participate in mock government procedures like lobbying, debating bills, working with the press, and judicial review. This year we had several students hold leadership positions: Mike Bright as Lieutenant Governor for the Blue Senate, Riley Phelps as Written Press Editor, Robyn Watson as Assistant Editor for Written Press, Sydney Harmon as Red Senate Reading Clerk, Laney Byler as a member of the Governor’s Cabinet, and Alex Hartung as Assistant Editor for Electronic Press. The High school YIG Advisor is Mary Middleton.

Seniors Laney Byler and Mike Crowl attended the annual banquet that signifies the end of the spring conference.

Middle School Youth in Government

The Middle School Youth in Government students attended a two-day fall conference similar to the High School conference. These students have the opportunity to hold positions in the House, Senate, Governor’s Cabinet, National Issues Forum, and Model Judiciary Program. This year’s Middle School Youth in Government program advisor was Mrs. Beegle.

Front Row: Sydney Harmon (11), Skyler DeMeyer (10), Grace Baker (11), Cheyenne Yoder (11), Anthony Rin (11), Kaity Caraway (9), Robyn Watson (10), Grace Keyer (10), Hailey Carper (10), Makayla Meyer (9), Laney Byler (12), and Obie Rathburn (10). Back Row: Madi Belli (9), Alex Hartung (10), Audrey Baker (9), Mike Crowl (12), Birdie Murphy (10), Lizzy Anderson (9), Riley Phelps (11), Zane Shoppell (10), Hailey Personette (10), and Molly Monsen (9).

Do we look like Senators yet? Middle School YIG members took time to goof around in between legislative sessions at the Capitol building.

Front Row: Boe Eckman (7), Evan Atherton (8), Blossom King (7), Abigail Stager (7), and Jordan Meyer (8). Back Row: Claycee West (7), Clark Miller (8), Kylar McDaniel (7), Daniel Hooker (8), Kim Slusher (8), and Caden Bowling (7).

Junior Riley Phelps and Sophomore Robyn Watson were in charge of sending out the daily YIG newsletter to all participants.

Pay attention? 8th Grader Daniel Hooker focuses on forming a debate regarding the bill that was being discussed.
6th Grade Clue-Me-In

The 6th Grade Clue-Me-In Team took 2nd place at the annual Clue-Me-In competition that was held at the ISD. The students read 15 books each and then compete against other teams answering questions and guessing the name of the book based on the clues they were given.

Coach Mrs. Dayharsh, Kyra Littlefield, Madison Owen, Davis Williams, Paige Poley, and Libby Graber.

Middle School Quiz Bowl

Quiz Bowl this year was held at the St. Joseph County ISD in Centreville Michigan and was coached by Angie Beegle and Mindy Williams. There are two events in Quiz Bowl; the first one being a written test and then the second one is the buzzer round where they are asked numerous random questions. This year the Middle School Quiz Bowl team took 4th place!

High School Quiz Bowl

The High School Quiz Bowl Team elected Sophomore Zane Shoppell as the team leader and was coached by Jacque Anderson. They had strong performances in 4 out of 7 of the buzzer rounds and 2 out of 4 in the written test rounds. The team finished 6th place this year!

Front Row: Kasen Jones (6), Brady Slack (6), and Davis Williams (6). Back Row: Jack Ruple (8), Stone Kemp (7), Ian St. Germain (7), and Eli Young (8).

6th Grader Brady Slack and 8th Grader Eli Young relax and take a break while they leave 6th Grader Davis Williams to do all of the work.

Sophomores
Kevin Barnes and Zane Shoppell, Junior Jared Mroz, and Freshman Kaity Caraway all write down their answers for the first part of Quiz Bowl.

Front Row: Kaity Caraway (9), Kevin Barnes (10), Meelan Patel (11), Raul Carmona (11), and Zane Shoppell (10). Back Row: Lizzy Anderson (9), A J Hayden (10), Noah Krull (9), and Jared Mroz (11).
Science Olympiad consists of a group of students that go to Kalamazoo Valley Community College once a year to compete against other schools in the county. There are 2 divisions; Division B being middle school and Division C being high school. The head coaches are Ms. Mary Middleton and Mrs. Mindy Williams while Mrs. Erica Bright and Mr. Joe Morsaw are assistant coaches. There are 15 students on each team and they participate in pairs in 23 events through-out the day. The middle school’s first team placed 8th among schools and the second team placed 3rd among alternate teams. The high school team placed 10th. All together White Pigeon took home 41 different awards. All individual winners are listed to the right.

Math Meet

In this year's Math Meet, groups of five students competed with 18 different schools. The students took a timed math test where they rushed to answer as many questions as possible. The team with the most questions right wins the competition. The 6th Grade team placed eighth overall, the 7th Grade team placed fourth in data analysis and probability, and the 8th Grade team did three times better than they did in 6th Grade.

Yummy! Yummy! Sophomore Grace Keyer chows down on a warm bagel with a warm cup of hot chocolate.

We have a book worm! Junior Sydney Harmon gets cozy and digs into the exciting adventures of her book.

Read-A-Thon

Senior Destinee Duke helps the blood donor by talking to him for moral support.

Pop goes the bagel! Senior Alaina Maas toasts her bagel to perfection to get ready to have a delicious snack.

Deep in the mysteries of her book, Freshman Courtney Delarce enjoys her time at the Read A-Thon.

Blood Drive

We work the blood drive! Juniors Kathrina Hagner, Anthony Rin, Cheyenne Yoder, and Grace Baker are working hard and help make the blood drive go smoothly.

Student council is an organization where its members are the voice of the school and promote student involvement and life. This year student council organized several school dances, two blood drives, and a read-a-thon. This year Student Council was led by Senior President Ryan Kemp. Senior Monica Andaverde was Vice President, Junior Kaitlyn Colvin was Secretary, and Junior Kathrina Hagner was Treasurer. The Advisors of Student Council this year were Mrs. Jarrad and Mr. Gropp. Middle School student council was led by President Clayceee West (7). Vice President was Destiny Jones (8). Secretary was Paige Poley (6) and Treasurer was Elijah Young (8). Middle School Advisors were Mrs. Beegle and Mrs. Poley.

7th Grader Blossom King shows her school spirit by walking on crutches on Fake an Injury Day.
Peer Mediation

Senior Emilee Lane proudly shows off all of the "What I am Thankful for" notes displayed for the Thanksgiving holiday. Middle School and High School Students were asked to write what they were thankful for during this time of the year.

Who doesn't love candy? Junior Kaitlyn Colvin delivered valentine candy grams to students whose friends wanted to remind them that they are special people.

Stand up to bullying! Junior Anna Miller gets involved with the hands against bullying event by putting her hand print next to her classmates.

6th Grader Zinnia Hartwick proudly shows her support to stop bullying while Senior Lexi Walters watches her from a distance.

No more bullying! 8th Grader Alex McIntyre pledges to help stop bullying by putting his mark on the window next to all of his friends.

Why can't we all just get along? 6th Grader Anthony Rubio is one of the first students to put his hand on the window to show his support.

Spanish Club

Advisor Senora Twichell invites students who are interested in learning more about the Spanish culture to join this club. Members get together during the year to learn about the events that led up to the creation of certain Spanish holidays and then had the opportunity to celebrate the event. This year the members learned about Spanish music by attending a Spanish concert.

Mix it up right! Senior Ryan Kemp, Junior Makenna Bolinger, Freshman Jillian Hagen, Junior Lacey Wickey and Sophomore Hailey Carper mix the ingredients for calavera or sugar skulls that are used in the celebration of the Day of the Dead.

Sophomore Jessica Bunnell uses a colorful sugar mixture to finish decorating a sugar skull (calavera) that was made in remembrance of a loved one for the Day of the Dead festivities.

The Day of the Dead Celebration. Junior Kaitlyn Colvin shows off the sugar skull that she made in celebration of Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead). This celebration runs from October 31 to November 2.

Front Row: Molly Monsen (9), Makenna Bolinger (11), Grace Baker (11), Kaitlyn Caraway (9), Kaitlyn Colvin (11), Ryan Kemp (12), Kathrina Hagnor (11), and Sydney Harmon (11). Back Row: Alaina Maas (12), Laney Byler (12), Anna Rubio (12), Lexi Walters (12), Kory Haas (9), and Meelan Patel (11).
National Honor Society

National Honor Society is a group of students who have shown they met the NHS requirements of Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship. Requirements also include a minimum GPA of 3.3 and an essay explaining why they should be in NHS. The club hosts an Induction Ceremony for new members of the club which are then inducted into NHS. Around November the members of the club raise money to take underprivileged third graders shopping for Operation Christmas. The members also host a New Student Orientation where new students at White Pigeon are invited to learn about our school and the programs it offers while enjoying snacks and refreshments.

NHS Officers:
President - Dani Chantrenne
Vice President - Riley Olsen
Treasurer - Cole Sellers
Secretary - Laney Byler

2014 NHS Induction Ceremony

Friends forever! Seniors Lexi Walters and Cyndi Flood congratulate Senior Alaina Maas for making it into NHS.

Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship. Senior Dani Chantrenne makes a speech about becoming members of NHS.

Raise your right hand! Junior Grace Baker and Senior Mike Anderson take the pledge to join NHS.

New Student Orientation

“White Pigeon offers a lot of great things for a small school,” said Freshman Kory Haas. Along side him is Junior Kris Haas.

We offer a variety of sports programs. Seniors Mike Crowl and Dylan Hochstetter tell the new students about our sports.

Mmmhmmm! Sophomore Julia Beck munches on some cookies while meeting new people.

Operation Christmas

I want that jacket! Juniors Meelan Patel and Jared Mroz took their little kids shopping at Target.

Wow, look at all the donations! This Operation Christmas sign, made by Seniors Alaina Maas and Lexi Walters, shows how many business and individuals donate.

Is that all he needs? Juniors Kaitlyn Colvin and Chase Sweitzer go over the checklist to make sure their third grader gets everything he needs.
The White Pigeon Interact club is a community service club that offers students a chance to get involved in the community. Rotarian Dan Cropsey has led the club for the last ten years, but sadly this year will be his last year as club leader. White Pigeon graduate Gabe Macias is going to take on the role as club leader next year.

Get Involved!

Freeze! Seniors Mike Crowl and Blake Groves take a small break from cleaning the courtyard to take a picture for us. Every year after the winter months, the Interact club picks a day to rake the leaves and mow the grass in the courtyard.

Don’t cut yourself. Senior Cole Sellers and Junior David Miller cut out the weeds from around the trees.

Clean up! Freshmen Lizzy Anderson and Casey Soto pick the leaves out of the Chief head in the courtyard.

Cheese! Senior Alyvia Axe is all smiles as she poses to take a picture with Miss Indiana 2014. “She is such an inspiration. It’s amazing that she went through so much and is able to let everyone know. Everyone should admire her strength.” Alyvia told us.

Burr! Senior Courtney Brown and Sophomore Skyle DeMeyer ignore the cold to stand outside of Wagoners to ring bells for the Salvation Army. Every year students brace the cold and stand outside to help the Salvation Army. “It was really cold, but I love helping people. And this year I got to do it with my best friend!” Skyle told us. “I’m sad to see her leave this year.”

Every year the Interact club takes a trip to a business to find out how it works. This year the club went to LTY in Sturgis. LTY is a business that makes labels for companies like: Dum Dum Suckers, Aunt Jemima, and Abbot Labs Protein Bars, and also makes decals for Hot Wheels Cars.

Winter: Dylan Sandy (11) and David Miller (11) for Boys Basketball. Riley Phelps (11) and Kathrina Hagen (11) for Girls Basketball. Kelsey Lehman (11), Obie Rathburn (10), and Courtney Brown (12) for Competitive Cheerleading. Nia Andaverde (9), Rogelio Segundo (12), and Braylon Steeb (11) for Wrestling.

Spring: Jordan Olsen (10) and Riley Olsen (12) for Golf. David Miller (11) and Mike Anderson (12) for Baseball. Kamryn Sia (12) and Monica Andaverde (12) for Softball. Danielle Chantrem (12), Kathrina Hagen (11), Cheyenne Yoder (11), Skyler DeMeyer (10), and Riley Phelps (11) for Girls Track. Jared Moore (11) for Boys Track.

This was Varsity Club's second year sponsored by Mr. Strawser. The club consisted of qualified Varsity athletes. The officers and club adviser would choose an athlete of the week for exceeding average athletic statistics. At the end of the sports season they were then awarded with a pizza party.

S.A.D.D.

S.A.D.D. (Students Against Destructive Decisions) had its second year at White Pigeon and was once again sponsored by Miss Schuler. The club was started to help encourage students to make wise life choices while under peer pressure. The club this year passed cards and candy out the week of Prom to convince people not to drink and drive before, during, and after Prom festivities. S.A.D.D. also looked at a program called Every 15 Minutes, which warns and shows students about the severity of driving under the influence.

Glee Club

This is Glee Club's second year at White Pigeon. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Benoit and Mrs. Poley and consists of Middle School and High School students of extraordinary vocal abilities. The club was able to perform a few times, one being for the Christmas Program at White Pigeon Central Elementary. The club consisted of only three girls, but they were a very successful group of girls.

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! White Pigeon's Jr./Sr. High School's Glee Club sang at White Pigeon Central Elementary's Christmas Program. They girls sung a variety of Christmas songs to entertain the kids during the Christmas season.
7TH GRADE VOLLEYBALL

Let's go Chiefs! Coach Kelly Ruder and Sahara Rummel watch the intense game against Centreville.

The 7th grade volleyball team experienced a lot of growth this season. As a whole, the girls improved in basic technique, communication, and their overall ability to work as a team. Though, we didn't have a winning season, we had a lot of fun, and I'm proud of all the hard work and effort each and every girl put forth." - Coach Kelly Ruder

"Running is a sport that is 90% mental." Junior Logan Shafer told us that's how he gets himself pumped up for his long runs.

Striving to the end! Seventh Grader Blaine Shafer gives it his all as he races through the course at Mendon.

Running can be exhausting! Senior Cody Hagen is more then determined to do his best.

Sprinting to get ahead. Seventh Grader Paul Schelstraete pushes himself to beat this fastest time.

"The 2014 Cross Country Team was one of the best teams I have had the pleasure of coaching. The athletes had fun, helped each other, and scored well at the meets. They were all quality student athletes, and improved throughout the season, it was a great year!"
- Pete Mestelle

Keep running, you're almost to the finish line! Eighth Grader Evan Atherton runs faster when he gets to the finish line at Dowagiac Rock N' Run.

Showing us what she's made of. Foreign Exchange Student Lea Daporta closes in on her Centreville opponent as they sprint to the finish.

We've got our mascot! Jumping in on the chants with our cheerleaders is Junior Logan Shafer as the White Pigeon Chief.
"We went 4-2 on the season. These kids played great and worked well together. We can’t wait to watch them play in high school."

- Coach Gropp

"We had a very good year this year. Our start was a little slow with everyone learning their new positions, however with positive leadership and attitudes the team got better each day. By week three you could see everyone believing in each other creating a great team effort on the field. This team is a fantastic group of young men, they will be exciting to watch during the next few years."

One Heart Beat!

Our team worked hard in the off-season to find a way to leave their mark on the program. Their dedication, hard work, motivation, and sacrifice had them an inch away from making the playoffs and a quarter away from winning the conference. With a 5-4 season record they were not able to accomplish all their team goals or keep their play off hopes alive. But, they were able to come together and give all their effort on the field. From these efforts, several seniors were able to come away from this season as White Pigeon record setters. Dylan Hochstetler set the season passing yards record with 1,348 yards. Donavon Gremonre set the season receptions and yards with 47 receptions and 817 yards. Mike Crowl finished the season as the 89 all-time career reception yards with 687 yards. Congratulations to all these team and personal accomplishments. We look forward to the next young men willing to make the sacrifice on the football field and leave their mark.

Looking for an open receiver to make the pass is Senior Dylan Hochstetler as they played at Centreville during their homecoming game.

You can't stop me! After making a catch from Dylan Hochstetler, Senior Donavon Gremonre runs down the field for a touchdown against LMC.

Determined to get the block and help out his quarterback against Cassopolis is Sophomore Hunter Rummiler.

Run Forest Run! Senior Blake Groves makes the catch and runs the ball down the field for a touchdown.

Coach Monaw

The line does "the Barry" to tell Senior Chase Personette they are ready for the punt.
Making a move! Eighth Grader Katie Long moves to an open spot so her fellow teammates can get the ball to her.

Set it up! Set it up! Seventh Grader Claycee West runs the ball down to set up their play motion.

Triple threat! Eighth Grader Brianna Herrick gets her elbows wide to keep the ball safe from the Mendon Hornets.

"This middle school girl's basketball season was one that saw rapid improvement in a very short period of time. In quite a Mother Nature-shortened season, the girls were still able to take huge strides as basketball players and, more importantly, as great teammates. Coach Nikki DeMeyer and I were very proud of their work ethic, coach ability, and buy-in to the Team philosophy. Our girls understand humility, responsibility, and the privilege that they have to wear the White Pigeon jersey as representatives of their families, school, and community. The future of the Lady Chiefs program is very bright with this group."

- Coach Twitchell

Fast Break! Freshman Sidney Mishler steals the ball and runs down the court to set up a play.

"I could not have asked for a better group of girls to start off my coaching career. Over all, the season went very well, we were a very young group and I saw tremendous improvements each week, and most importantly we had FUN!!! We ended up 9-10 for the season. I am very excited to see what these girls can do next season. With their positive, willing, and determined attitudes I see nothing but great things in their futures. I am very proud of our Lady Chiefs!!! Thanks girls for a great season!!!"

Help! Sophomore Birdie Murphy triple threats to keep the ball away from the Mendon Hornets.

Ready to run the court is Freshman Shanna Hagner. Along side her, providing back-up, is Sophomore Nikol Black.

1...2...3... Fiat! The girls huddle together and get fired up and ready to play.

I'm open! I'm open! Sophomore Hailey Personette yells to her teammate Freshman Paige Brock to pass to her so she can go up for a basket.
The 2014-2015 Lady Chiefs basketball team had a very successful year finishing 14-8 overall and 5-3 in their division. This team really surprised me on how well they improved and how hard they worked. I am really proud of each one of these young ladies on the season they had and what they accomplished in the classroom. Beating Constantine again this year is always a joy. The girls represented our school and community with class all year long. I am honored and very thankful I had the opportunity to coach these girls. Go Chiefs. WORD!"

"This season definitely went in our favor. We worked hard every practice and competition to get what we wanted. Last year, our team was filled with a majority of new girls and this year the majority of our girls were returning. Anyone that knows the cheer world would understand that experience helps with points and placing. However, without the support of our new girls I doubt we would've been able to get third in our conference. I want to wish our new girls and the returning girls the best of luck, I know they will work hard to get far." - Senior Courtney Brown

MS Boys Basketball

7th Grade

The sideline comments from Coach Gropp: “The 7th grade team made great strides during their season. They fought hard every game. I look forward to seeing them play in the future.”

Callin’ the shots of the season from Coach Strawser: “We had a great year. 10-2 was our record. We finished 3rd place in the county tournament. All in all we had a great season!”

Chris Bontrager and Bryce Roberts get in the defensive position to snatch the ball.

Brendon Schrager and Mason Almack stand ready as Carlos Castro throws up a free throw.

JV Boys Basketball

A note from Coach Miller: “The JV Chiefs worked and played hard this season. They played with heart and soul out on that court and I’m proud to have been their coach. Good job boys and thanks for a great season!”

The Varsity Basketball team stands together as a team during the National Anthem before their win against Marcellus.

"This Basketball season the boys learned to play with focus, team defense, and trust with one another. They did really good with taking care of the ball, eliminating turnovers, and being patient and smart both offensively and defensively. I am very proud of these young men's heart, will, and 'never say die' attitude. I couldn’t be more proud of a group of kids right now."

Hs State Qualifiers

112 Pounds - Rogelio Segundo
Senior
Rogelio’s first match at state was against Sophomore Connor Krupp of New Lothrop. Rogelio won his final match against Junior Connor Erma of Baldwin with a 4-3 decision, earning his title as a state placer, ranking 8th. Rogelio’s final season record was 40-8.

Wrestlers, Senior Rogelio Segundo and Freshman Nic Andaverde both qualified for the 2015 Individual State Championships. Rogelio ended the season by placing 8th at State.

103 Pounds - Nic Andaverde
Freshman
Nic’s first state match was against Junior Dylan Leathers of Hudson. He won this match with a decision of 8-7, and ended his season with a record of 40-5.

Rogelio Segundo (12)
Nic Andaverde (9)
"The season went really well. Despite being a young team with only one Senior, we were competitive in every match. The team demonstrated great work ethic and will to win by each individual. White Pigeon returned to the State Individual Championship after two years to bring home another state placer." - Coach Sosinski

Junior Braydon Steeb uses his favorite move, the ‘Butcher’, to pin his opponent from Jefferson at the Onsted tournament in December.

Nate Weber, a Freshman, stacked his opponent from Colon at the White Pigeon league tournament against Mendon, Bronson, and Colon.

Using a headlock is Freshman Sebastian Castro. He pinned his opponent from Colon to put his team in the lead during a BCS tournament.

Congratulations to Senior Rogelio Segundo, who achieved his 100th career win this season! Rogelio also made it to state where he placed 8th.

Story time? The White Pigeon wrestlers take a break from the Jackie Besser Memorial Tournament to listen to a referee tell some stories.
Boys

Boys Middle School Track had a very successful season. For being such a short season, our kids showed great improvement in their times, distances, and heights. We competed very well and had multiple meet winners and league champions. Our group of young men represented our school and community very well and will continue to do so in their coming years as Chiefs.

- Coach Twichell

Will he make it? 8th Grader Evan Atherton uses all his strength for the pole vaulting event.

Girls

This years 2015 MS Track Team only had 12 girls but they competed every track meet. We ended up 3rd in the BCS East Conference and that is a big accomplishment with such a small team. I am proud that I was able to coach these young ladies and look forward to next years season!

- Coach McClure

Perfect form! 7th Grader Claycee West jumps her highest for the high jump event.

7th Grader Reyna Fielas attacks each hurdle as she moves quickly through the course.

“Shot put is a lot of fun but it also uses up all of your strength,” said 7th Grader Abigail Stager.

1, 2, 3... GO! 7th Grader JoAnna Jones pushes herself to cross the finish line.
The 2015 track season's weather was terrible, but the team was wonderful! We had a very good season, more participation, confidence and a little harder work would have made the team one of the best. We finished 5th in BCS Conference and Riley Phelps qualified for state competition in the long jump. I will miss the seniors, but I am looking forward to next year. Thanks to all the athletes.

The 2014 White Pigeon Track teams had some nice performances this season. The 400m relay team made up of Dylan Hochstetler, Donavon Gremore, Hunter Rummel, and Sebastian Castro had an excellent year. They finished 2nd at the BCS League Meet earning them Honorable Mention Honors. They also qualified for the Division 4 State track meet. Mike Crowl finished tied for 3rd in the High Jump at the League meet, and Gavin Kopf also earned Honorable Mention honors with his 2nd place finish in the pole vault. The WP Track team will have a very good group of underclassmen returning for next year. The Seniors were all Major contributors to the Track team for the last four years and will be missed. Overall this year track team had a really good season. Even with low number of track team members, this team didn't let that affect them. They competed very well all season long and set the tone for a great 2016 season. - Coach Strawser

Sophomore Erica Wickey gets down and ready hoping for the ball to be hit to her so she can make a throw to first base.

CENTER FIELDER SENIOR HALEY OWEN makes the perfect play by fielding the ball in front of her and coming up firing to second base to get an out for the team.

SOPHOMORE HAILEY CARPER plays short stop and makes a great throw to second base to get an out against Centreville.

SOPHOMORE BROOKE BOOCHEr makes a run for home plate and scores a run in the game against Michigan Lutheran.

FRESHMAN SARAH EVISIZER keeps her head down and picks out her pitch to drive the ball to the outfield during our game against Buchanan.

SOPHOMORE HAILEY PERSONETTE goes up to bat against the Buchanan pitcher and has the perfect swing to hit the ball and make it on base.

SOPHOMORE AYLIVIA AXE throws a fastball down the middle to strike out the batter in the season opener against Burr Oak.

Nice stroke! Senior Riley Olsen chips his ball on to the green.

The 2015 Varsity golf team came into the season as the defending State Champions and managed to hold onto the #1 ranking all the way to the State Finals. A disappointing finish at the State Finals could not take away from the outstanding season this team had in which they won 7 tournaments and played 6 weeks without experiencing a defeat. This was a great team and a great group of young men, they will be missed.

"The White Pigeon Varsity Baseball team had a season full of exciting moments from starting the season with a 15-0 win over Burr Oak to the heartbreaking lose to Centreville 2-1 in districts. We continued to get better and better as the season went on. We battled the entire year and I can't wait to see what the future holds for the White Pigeon Varsity Baseball team. We have lost a lot of talented athletes, but we have a good group returning for us in the future. Go Chiefs!"

- Coach Minger

Ready to steal? Junior David Miller watches Sophomore Zane Shoppell to see when he can steal the base.

Point, Chiefs! Senior Ian Hayden reaches home plate to boost the score for his team.

Let's go team! The baseball team cheers on their teammates as they watch from the dugout.

As their last days quickly approached, the seniors were able to spend their days experiencing their last bit of fun together as a class. During the last week, they had to complete their Senior Exit Interviews. On their last day of High School, Mr. Gropp and Mrs. Jarrad held a cookout to honor the seniors. (Word has it that it was even better than the school's lunch!). The Monday before graduation rehearsal, the seniors went on their traditional Cedar Point trip. On graduation rehearsal day, the seniors were served a home cooked breakfast made by senior parents. During the breakfast they opened letters they wrote to their future self in 8th grade. After rehearsal, the Seniors participated in the annual Senior drive-around. At the drive-around seniors can drive a vehicle of their choice three times around the high school for everyone to see.

Community Service: The senior class had 24 students who completed 20 or more hours of community service combined throughout their junior and senior year.

Top Scholar: These students have held a 3.5 GPA or higher throughout their high school career and have worked hard to obtain that GPA.
Every high school student at one point has stated that he/she can’t wait to leave high school. Twelve years later, when that day comes, the seniors don’t want to leave. On Friday, May 22, 2015, 59 students from White Pigeon High School got their high school diplomas and are now ready to enter the adult world. On this day of happiness and tears, Seniors said goodbye to their old life and hello to their new.
